Introduction

Let's go back in time to 1986, when Louis A. Rivas, NEAAD Vice-President, proposed the idea for a history committee to develop a history book for NEAAD basketball. This was inactive for 2 years until it was once brought up again in 1988. Eric Albro became engrossed in this for 2 years and developed statistics and stories.

Still it was not actively done until 1994 when Mark W. Hughey rolled up his shelves and began work. He did extensive research on accurate statistics, obtaining photos and graphic design on the NEAAD history book. Louis A. Rivas used his knowledge of the NEAAD to assist Mark in the research.

Not until 1995, any real progress was done, and with the addition of John Moore, some editing could be done. John worked for many hours helping Mark and Louis revise the wording and write up stories of hallowed moments in NEAAD history.

At last in 1996, we three have finally completed this difficult task, which has consumed a great deal of our time.

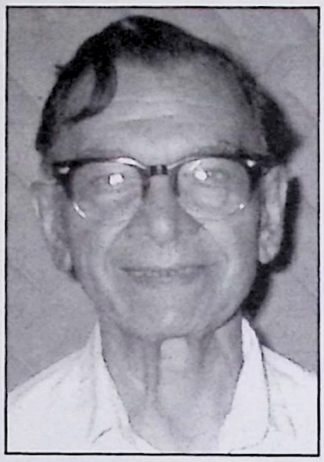
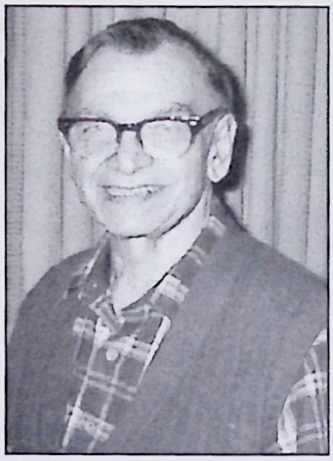
In Memory of

Joseph (Joe) Ricciuti

February 26, 1917- January 19,1995





Joseph (Joe) Ricciuti passed away on January 19th 1995. He would have turned 78 on February 26th.

He was born February 26, 1917 in Boston and he attended and graduated from the Boston School for the Deaf. He was involved in many activities for the Deaf Community. In fact, he was the greatest leader for the Boston Deaf Club for many years and he was the co-founder of the Boston Deaf Club and the Worcester Deaf Club. He was also a member of the Revere Club of the Deaf. He travelled the NEAAD, EAAD and AAAD basketball and softball tournaments for almost fifty years and attended the Delegate meetings at NEAAD, EAAD and AAAD for more than thirty-five years. He was a great fundraiser for the Boston Deaf Club. He was inducted into NEAAD's Hall of Fame for his leadership in 1993.

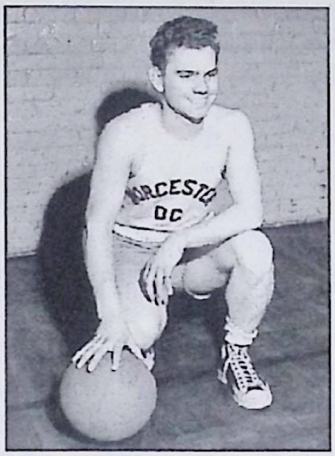
He was a NEAAD Secretary-Treasurer (1959-60) and NEAAD Vice-President (1965-68,1984-86). Also, he was a former chairperson of the 7th (1952) and17th (1962) annual NEAAD Basketball tournaments in Worcester & Boston, 32nd (1977) annual EAAD Basketball tournament in Revere. His last major activity was as the chair of the 44th (1988) annual AAAD Basketball tournament in Boston. He also was an active member of the 10/25 AAAD.

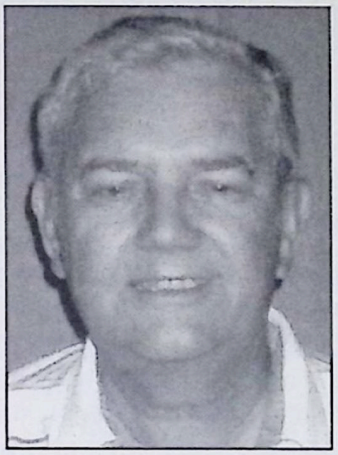
His last visit was to the 50th Annual AAAD basketball tournament in Arkon, Ohio in April of 1994. It is unfortunate that he missed the 50th annual NEAAD basketball tournament as he looking forward to this special event.

Of course, we, NEAAD people will miss his wonderful leadership.

Our sympathies go to his wife Helen, his son and two grandchildren. May he rest in peace.

In Memory of
John L. Philip
1929-1996





John, attended the Clarke school for the Deaf and he left in 1948.
The Worcester deaf Club, hereby, recognizes John L. Philip for his many hours of commitment, support and service to the club for 48 years.

John has been a player, a coach, and a leader for Worcester Deaf Club (WDC). He first started playing basketball for the WDC in 1949 and his team won four straight championships in a row, 1949-1952. Since sports was in John's blood. he spent many hours coaching both basketball and softball teams. His last coaching job was from 1991 to 1993 with the women's basketball team which was placed 4th in the AAAD Tournament in Little Rock, Arkansas in 1992. In 1993, he was forced to retire from coaching because of his health. In addition to all of the above, John has also chaired a number of tournaments and kept them running smoothly. He was inducted into the Basketball Hall of Fame in 1972 as a player, in 1978 as a leader, in 1984 as a coach; and into the Softball Hall of Fame in 1984 as a player. During John's years with the WDC, he has held the offices of President, Vice President, Athletic Director, and House Manager, almost all of them numerous times. In other words, John has worn many hats for the WDC. His last Vice-Chairperson of 50th Annual Basketball in Framingham in March of 1995.

John is a remarkable man with much intelligence, a caring personality, and with a great sense of humor. We will always remember his significant contributions to the WDC all these years. Now, We want to thank him for his years of unselfish service.

Hats off to John L. Philip for the honor, he has given to NEAAD.

John will be greatly missed by his family and friends.

Foreword

Without the difficult work that Mark Hughey, Louis Rivas and John Moore have put into the 50 years history of NEAAD, this would not have been possible. They have done a great job in gathering all the pictures and stories and put them together into one book. The older players and coaches will certainly remember their past while reading this book.

Fifty years of storied history is in this book, and I am glad that the three, Mark, Louis and John decided to put their time into a very difficult task. Many pictures of well known and nearly forgotten athletes of the past are in this book. There are various sections in this book, including the 50 tournaments that NEAAD had, and the Hall of Fame. It has many sections interesting to various readers.

This book is something new as no region of AAAD has published a book regarding their sports history. AAAD has done one, but NEAAD is the first region of AAAD to do so. It is expected that other regions will use this as an example for their histories. Deaf sports history that is saved and written is rare, and this is a huge contribution to the deaf athletic community.

Again, thanks to Mark, Louis and John for working hard on this book!!

PRIOR TO THE HISTORY OF THE FOUNDING OF THE NEAAD

a few deaf teams were established in areas such as Lawrence, Cambridge, Hartford, Fall River, Rhode Island (Providence) and Worcester. They played against each other whenever they could, and at times, the victor would go to a national deaf tournament, prior to the founding of the AAAD. One such example is in 1942, when Lawrence won over the Rhode Island team by forfeit, Lawrence won the right to attend a national tournament for the deaf in New York City.

The earliest recorded date of a deaf team in New England is undetermined. Teams have played in the 1930's and 40's in various locations. One interesting team, was the Gallaudet Club for the Deaf founded in Fall River, Massachusetts. Hartford at a time called their team the ASDers in honor of their beloved American School in Hartford. The powerhouses were Lawrence and Hartford during those years. Ironically Hartford was the team which thrashed Lawrence in 1945, prior to the first NEAAD tournament in 1946. Lawrence would gain sweet revenge by defeating Hartford in the first NEAAD tournament.

Without Charles Napoli's dedicated commitment to history-keeping,we would never have gained access to such historical information on pre-NEAAD teams. We give special thanks to this wonderful man for his contribution to this NEAAD yearbook.

HARTFORD ASDERS 1941

Meets Rhode Island Team

The Silent Club five of this city will meet the Rhode Island A. A. for the Deaf quintet tonight at the Lawrence Boy's Club gym in a game in which the winner will play in New York in the National championships for the deaf. The local team has been playing in the Senior League which operates Saturday nights but tonight they will step out of the league competition to meet their rivals from Rhode Island.

The contest will get underway at 7:30 and close rivalry is expected as the two clubs vie for top honors in the New England League for the Deaf. Harold Barcroft will handle the whistle. The probable lineups:

Paganettaro, lb	rb, Marzocci

WINS BY FORFEIT

The Silent Club five of this city won by forfeit over the Rhode Island A. A. of the Deaf of Providence Saturday night when the visiting team failed to make an appearance here. By virtue of the win the local team earned the right to go to the National championships for the Deaf to be held in New York on April 11.

Silent Five Easily Defeats Cambridge

The Silent club found the baskets too often last Saturday night and by whirlwind attack sent Cambridge down to defeat 75-26 before a big crowd at the St. Mary's school Cambridge. The Cambridge A. A. were far behind in the first half as Jackael, Tandy and Gaidis plied in points and Cambridge never could catch up to the Silents as the Silents' five man defense tightened.

The Silents are using the Rhode Island type of all passing and no dribbling down the floor. Tandy, Jackael and Gaidis were big guns with 23, 37 and 11 points while Ovitt and Blundell played a great defensive game.

Next game the Silents will open the first home game of the season against powerful tall Lynn Seals at the Lawrence Y. M. C. A. this Saturday.

Silent Hoopsters In Win Over Hub Cagers

The Lawrence Silents found a formidable foe in the Boston Deaf quintet but outbattled the home hoopsters to win by a 43 to 30 margin in Saturday's contest played at the Boston High School of Commerce. The winners got away to a slow lead, moved it up to 25 to 13 for two periods of action and increased it to a 33 to 17 margin by the end of the third quarter. It marked the third successive win for the Silent five.

Boston staged a spirited but belated rally with the appearance of the final period, caging four field goals in rapid-fire succession. The Lawrence boys, however, held too great a lead, too much for the oncoming hoopsters to catch with only three minutes left on the clock.

Pete Gaidis and Tandry sparked the locals to the victory ledger with the first getting 18 points to top the individual scorers while the latter pegged in 12 markers during the day's outing. The summary:

Silent Club Beats Worcester Cagers

The Lawrence Silent club's basketball team traveled to Worcester where it chalked up a 53-20 win over Worcester Catholic of the Deafs on the Boys' club court in that city.

Ovitt and Gaidis were outstanding for the local team in its one-sided win, scoring sixteen and fifteen points, respectively. For the losing aggregation, Trudeau was high scorer with a total of eight points.

In its next court appearance, scheduled for Saturday at the Lawrence Y. M. C. A., the Silent club quintet will meet the Fall River A. A. The game is scheduled to get underway at 8 o'clock.

CAMBRIDGE A.A. EAGLES 1943

Silent Club Team Beats Fall River

Jumping away to an early lead in the opening quarter, the Lawrence Silent club basketball team defeated the Fall River A. A. by the score of 61-34 in a game played for the deaf only at the Fall River Boys' club.

The local quintet led at the end of the first period 7-2, and increased it to 24-10 for play throughout the first half. They added 13 more to lead 37-26 for the first three stanzas and went on a scoring spree of 24 points in the final period that rested their total at 61 while the opposition was tallying but 34 points.

Gaidis, the Lawrence right guard, featured for the winners with twelve baskets and three foul shots for a net of 27 points.

On Jan. 20, the local five, which is managed by Joseph Zolnerunas, will travel to Providence, R. I., for its next court appearance.

Silent Club Whips Worcester Quintet

In a return game played at the Y. M. C. A. court last Saturday evening, the Silent Club basketball team romped in roughshod fashion over a hapless Worcester Catholic of the Deaf five, winning by the very one-sided score of 104-32.

The local quintet had no trouble in downing the visitors with Gaidis, Ovitt, and Monroe leading the scoring onslaught. The first named of the trio found the net for thirteen shots from the floor, plus two foul conversions for a 28-point total, while Ovitt and Monroe shared the runner-up honors for the evening's work, caging twenty markers apiece. Blanchard featured for the Worcester quintet in its losing cause, dropping fifteen points through the hoop in the four periods of play.

Saturday evening the Silent Club cagers entertain the Fall River A.A. in a return engagement to be played at the local Y. M. C. A. The contest is slated to start at 7:30 o'clock. The summary:

Silent Club Whips Fall River Cagers

In their final game of the season, the Silent Club hoopsters easily defeated the Fall River A.A., running roughshod over the visiting cagers to the tune of 109-26 in a return contest between the two quintets played last Saturday evening on the Y.M.C.A. court.

Jaeckel and Ovitt, at the left and right forward positions, paced the local cagers to their one-sided win as the pair played tunes on the strings for 71 field goals and two foul shots, while Ovitt fell just a point behind on the same number of tosses from the floor and one foul conversion. Galdis at center was third high for the winning Silent Club team with 16 points.

For the visiting aggregation, which dropped a 61-34 decision to the Silent Club in the first meeting of the season, Dyell and Rogers shared the scoring honors with a net of eight points apiece.

Silent Club Five Beats St. Francis

In a return game that was played here on their own court, the Silent Club five defeated St. Francis De Sales of Providence by the one-sided score of 66-20 in an upset that evened the series between the two hoop teams. The locals had previously traveled to Providence where the St. Francis cagers had easily won by a 81-51 margin.

Galdis featured for the Silent Club in its second meeting with St. Francis, finding the net for twelve baskets and a lone foul shot for a 25-point total. The locals led from start to finish, jumping away to a 28-8 lead for the first half and extending it to the final 66-20 margin in the second.

Against the Florence A. A. hoopsters, who were right at home on their court in Gardner, the Silent Club trailed throughout, losing 73-43, with the home team leading 20-2 for the first period and 35-10 at the half. Galdis featured for the losers with a net of twelve points and Jake got 26 for the winners.

The Silent Club's next court appearance will be against Worcester and the game will be played here this Saturday at the Y. M. C. A., starting at 8:00.

Silent Club Five Loses To Hartford

The Lawrence Silent Club five recently opened its 1945-1946 basketball season here but dropped the initial encounter by a 72 to 44 margin to the Hartford School for the Deaf.

The visiting basketeers played a clever game, took a 22 to 8 lead over the home Silent Club quintet in the opening quarter and extended it to 37 to 16 by the halfway mark. The locals stiffened their defense in the third period while racking up a few points on their own behalf to bring the score up to 49 to 32 but the visitors ran wild in the final quarter as the home forces were gathering in but twelve additional markers. Renick and Adam sparked the drive for Hartford. Together they accounted for 50 points.

Jackael featured for the local quintet, dropping four shots from the floor and seven from the foul line for a 15 point total. Galdis was runner-up for honors with the losers caging eleven markers while Landry was outstanding on defense.

The concept of NEAAD was developed after the first AAAD tournament in 1945. Edward Buell, Harry Spring and others saw the events through AAAD & EAAD and invited a few leaders from New York and Pennsylvania in the Hartford, Connecticut area in 1945 to discuss the development of New England States Clubs of the Deaf. They developed the unofficial NEAAD to set up the first NEAAD tournament in American School for the Deaf in West Hartford, Conn. on February 16, 1946 in which Lawrence Silent Club was crowned on the first NEAAD champion.

During the first two years there were considerable difficulties as there were no officers, so with the advise of officials from Pennsylvania and New York City, James Mulligan of Hartford became the first official President of NEAAD in 1948, Abram Cohen of Providence was the Vice President, Stanley Hosta of Holyoke was the Secretary and Joseph Marino of Hartford was the Treasurer. David Thomas of Boston was involved with the founding members of the NEAAD.

NEAAD then had a storied history with the Lawrence & Lynn teams in 1940's, the great Providence dynasty in the 1950's, the powerhouse of Hartford from the late 1960's to the early 1970's, Gerald Lentini's teams from the late 1970's to the early 1980's and the CAADA teams of the 1990's.

NEAAD remained a part of the EAAD region of AAAD until 1983 when they severed their ties with EAAD to become the 8th region of AAAD. This meant that NEAAD no longer had to go through the EAAD's to go to the AAAD's.

The six founders & leaders all had hosted the first six NEAAD tournaments from 1946-1951. This was the foundation for the start-up of the NEAAD.

New England Tournament For Deaf Captured By Lawrence Silent Club

By Jimmy Cunavelis - The Hartford Courant Reporter

The Lawrence, Mass., Silent Club sunk three field goals in an overtime battle to top the Holyoke, Mass., Social club, 40-34 in overtime, to capture the First Annual New England States Clubs of the Deaf Basketball Championship Tournament in the American School for the Deaf gymnasium. The competition, a one day affair with seven entrants participating, was sponsored by the Hartford Club of Deaf and was witnessed by several hundred spectators.

Both Clubs, each playing their third game of the day, were extremely tired in the final battle which was closely played throughout. Ernest Ovitt's layup hoop with exactly one minute remaining in the regulation contest, tied up the count at 34-34 and sent the game into a three minute overtime. Earl West caged two field goals in the first minute of the overtime for Lawrence and Ovitt tallied again and the eastern Massachusetts team took the championship.

With Calvin Tandy setting the pace Lawrence was in front at the quarter, 8-6, and continued to lead and held an 18-17 advantage at the halfway mark, Holyoke, however, came through with three successive hoops immediately after intermission and took over the lead which it clung to until the final period.

Holyoke gained the final by dumping the Providence Silent Club, 40-34, while Lawrence reached the last round by upsetting the seeded Hartford Club of Deaf team, 45-39. Although Steve Renick sunk 25 points, the Hartford squad couldn't overcome the Lawrence five. Lawrence opened up fast and was in a 14-7 lead at the quarter. Hartford fought back and tied the count at 16-16 in the second quarter but the Lawrence squad came back to hold a 21-19 margin at the half.

Hartford knotted the count at 21-21 but Lawrence pulled away, this time for good, and was in front 35-26, as the last period got underway.

The Hartford five swamped the Bridgeport team, which substituted for Providence in the consolation game, by a 79-31 score. Steve Renick again paced all scorers with a 27 point total.

Hartford was seeded and drew a first round bye. In other first round games Lawrence dumped the Bridgeport Silent Club, 52-32, Holyoke Trounced the Boston Deaf Club, 54-15, and Providence edged the Cambridge, Mass. A.A. for the Deaf, 32-25.

Lynn Deaf Athletic Takes NEAAD Title

Obtained from Lynn Telegram & Edited by John Moore

The Lynn deaf Athletic Club won the final contest of the 2nd Annual New England Athletic Association of the Deaf tournament by defeating the Providence Club for the Deaf 71-49 at the Somerville High school gym. Five of the Lynn players were over six feet tall, and they used to be part of the mighty Lawrence five. George Trudeau and Ernest Ovitt, the shooting stars of the Lynn team, helped them attain the championship against the Providence team. Edmund Toppi led the Providence team to the finals. Trudeau would have not joined the Lynn team if Ovitt, the team captain had not pulled him out of a hearing team in Worcester to play with the Lynn team. Ovitt's action greatly benefited the Lynn team as Trudeau led the team all the way to the EAAD finals against the mighty Buffalo team. The L.D.A.C. brought home the NEAAD title and the second place trophy at the EAAD tournament in New York City after a great winter.

The L.D.A.C. struggled with the Providence team during the first half of the title game and led 37-30 at halftime. After that, the Lynn team caught fire, and with the excellent accuracy of Ovitt, Harris and Jaeckel, L.D.A.C. defeated Providence by 22 points. Jaeckel surprised many by scoring 33 points with 13 field goals and 7 free throws. This was registered as the highest score by any player in NEAAD tournament history at that time.

They played three games that day, defeating the Bridgeport Silent Club 37-25 and the Boston Deaf Club "A" team 45-34 prior to taking the NEAAD crown from Providence. Providence made to the finals by defeating Holyoke Athletic & Social Club for the Deaf 51-26 in the semis.

3rd Annual NEAAD Basketball Tournament

Providence Captures NEAAD Crown

Obtained from Bridgeport Post & Edited by John Moore

The 3rd Annual NEAAD basketball tournament was held at the Connecticut State Armory gymnasium in Bridgeport on Saturday February 28, 1948. Edward Buell and Louis Durant were co-chairs for Bridgeport Club in the planning of this tournament. There were a total of six entrants, and they competed for the title all day.

The Providence Deaf Club defeated Hartford 42-37 in the finals for the first of their string of NEAAD championships. Raymond Laferriere, Sr. and John Speck were outstanding and helped lead PDC to their championship. Holyoke took third by defeating Boston 36-19 in a consolation game.

Four of the mighty Lynn five played for Holyoke, and for Burke and Ovitt, members of the Lawrence and Lynn teams, it was the first time they failed to bring home the NEAAD crown.

In the opening round, Providence edged Boston 34-27, while Hartford eliminated host Bridgeport by a score of 37-33. In the second round, Holyoke bowed to Providence 46-38 while Hartford defeated Lynn Deaf Athletic Club 43-34. The defection of Trudeau, Ovitt, Burke and Fox to the Holyoke club hurt the L.D.A.C.'s chances in repeating. They failed to help Holyoke win due to a powerful Provivence team.

4th Annual
NEAAD Basketball Tournament

Worcester buries Providence 80-46 for first NEAAD crown

Obtained from Providence Journal - Edited by John Moore

The Worcester Deaf Club team, in its first year of existence, steamrolled to their first NEAAD championship by defeating Providence Deaf Club 80-46 at the Hope High school gym in Providence, Rhodes Island. George Trudeau scored 32 points in the championship game for Worcester, coming close to Jaeckel's record of 33 points set in 1947 on the Lynn team. The Worcester team had many individuals from the championship Lawrence and Lynn teams. The likes of Trudeau, Ovitt, Winters, Jaeckel and Botti came from the 1947 champion Lynn team, while Tandy, Ovitt, Jaeckel and Winters were members of the 1946 Lawrence Silent Club.

Six teams from the New England region were involved in the 4th Annual NEAAD tournament. Worcester defeated Lynn 56-20 and ousted Holyoke 47-36 enroute to their championship. Providence defeated Hartford 41-38 and eliminated Bridgeport 42-33 to make to the finals. The mighty Worcester team was too much for the 1948 champion Providence club to handle. Holyoke gained third place honors by defeating Bridgeport 49-44. Bridgeport took the fourth place slot by defeating Hartford 42-38.

Henry Brenner who scored 19 points against the powerful Worcester club was declared the Most Valuable Player of the tournament. Brenner was at that time on the way towards becoming a collegiate sports star at the University of Rhode Island. Thomas Flaherty of Lynn brought home the Sportsmanship award.

Worcester went on to the EAAD finals before losing to Pittsburgh 72-60 in Somerville, Massachusetts. Many were baffled by Trudeau's playing style, as he was voted the EAAD MVP.

5th Annual NEAAD Basketball Tournament

Worcester defeats Holyoke for 2nd straight title

Obtained from Holyoke Transcript-Telegram & Edited by John Moore

The fifth annual NEAAD tournament, chaired by Stanley Hosta, was held in Holyoke, Massachusetts. Hosta also coached the Holyoke team who were labeled as the "dark horse" contenders as they finished near the top in the previous four tournaments. Worcester came to Holyoke aiming to be the first team ever to win two straight championships, and they succeeded in defeating Holyoke 42-31 in the championship game.

This tournament attracted an estimated 1100 fans, dazzled by Trudeau's 35 point performance in the game against Bridgeport, which broke Harold Jaeckel's record of 33 points set in 1947 with the Lynn team. Trudeau scored 69 out of his team's 128 points. It was a case of too much for Holyoke by the former Holyoke star, Trudeau's performance. This spoiled Holyoke's chance to bring a championship while on their home court. Due to his outstanding performance, Trudeau was given the MVP honors. The attendance totals, and Trudeau's 35 points were marked as new NEAAD tournament records.

The Holyoke team was 8-0 and came into the tournament undefeated, and heralded as one of the teams with a chance to prevent the Worcester team from repeating. In the opening rounds, Worcester crushed Bridgeport 54-39 while Holyoke maintained its unblemished season by defeating Boston 40-28. In the consolation round, Providence defeated Hartford 58-39 and Boston discarded Bridgeport 45-36. Providence eliminated Boston 58-31 to gain third place honors. Trudeau scored 20 points in the championship game against Holyoke to give him an average of 23.3 points a game for the tournament. Edwin Holl led the Holyoke squad with 10 points. Ironically, Holl's 10 points in the final was the only points that he scored in the entire tournament.

Five players were selected as part of the All-Tourney team, two players hailed from Holyoke, Walter Bajorek and Morris Dominque. George Trudeau and Ernest Ovitt of Worcester and Edward Sedoma of Providence were also selected. Trudeau and Ovitt were members of the 1948 Holyoke squad after defeating from the Lynn team. Trudeau, Ovitt, Winters and Fox were from the heralded 1947 Lynn team.

6th Annual NEAAD Basketball Tournament

Worcester Wallops Fairfield 112-33 To Win Third Concensitive Title

Obtained from Hartford Courant - Edited by John Moore

The 6th Annual NEAAD tournament was held at the American School for the Deaf in West Hartford, Connecticut on the dates of February 23 & 24, 1951. Chaired by Joseph Palka, the tournament was declared a success though it was saddened by the death of George R. Adam, a Hartford player who was struck by a train on February 17th, a mere six days before the tournament began. Adam will be remembered as a great player, who was on the 1947 Lynn squad which won the NEAAD championship. He also played for Hartford, and was outstanding in many areas. Hartford and the NEAAD lost a great man and player.

Worcester had started its own dynasty by winning its third straight championship by a lopsided score of 112-33 over the Fairfield county club for the Deaf. Worcester extended its margin over Fairfield by 79 points at the end of the game. The 112 point total and the 79 point margin are still NEAAD championship game records to this date. Composed of former 1947 champion Lynn players, Trudeau, Ovitt, Fox, Winters, Botti and Jaeckel, they were too much for the Fairfield team to handle.

Worcester manhandled the Hartford team 70-40, by jumping to a 34-15 halftime lead. Hartford tried valiantly to catch up in the second half but Worcester was too fast paced for them. Worcester received a scare in the second game by edging Providence 66-58 in overtime prior to reaching the final with Fairfield. In the opening round, Fairfield defeated Boston 37-29, Fairfield jumped to a quick lead, and struggled to win the game. In the second game, Fairfield routed Bridgeport 54-27 to reach the final against Worcester. Holyoke defeated Providence 67-64 to capture third place honors.

Ernest Ovitt won the MVP honors with his rebounding and defensive abilities, while helping lead Worcester to their third straight NEAAD crown. Trudeau led the tournament by averaging 20.3 points a game. The combination of scoring, rebounding and defense by the Worcester players was too much for everyone to overcome. Worcester defense limited the opponents to 43 points per game while they averaged 82.7 points per game.

7th Annual
NEAAD Basketball Tournament

Worcester Edges Providence, 58-56 For Fourth Concensitive Title

Obtained from Worcester Gazette - Edited by John Moore

Worcester gave their home fans a trill in the final game by winning their fourth straight championship. The 7th Annual NEAAD tournament was held at Norton Field House in Worcester, Massachusetts on the dates of February 22 & 23, 1952. Joseph Ricciuti was the Chairman of this event, he was also one of the co-founders of the Worcester Club for the Deaf. Joe, well known by many deaf people in Massachusetts, had helped found three deaf clubs in Worcester, Boston and Revere.

Worcester narrowly edged the upstart Providence club 58-56 to win their fourth banner. Donald Tucker led the Worcester team with 19 points while Edward Sedoma led the Providence club with 23 points. Ernest Ovitt won his second straight NEAAD tournament MVP from his overall outstanding play. This was the second straight year Worcester had a close call with Providence, as they defeated Providence in overtime in the semifinals of the 1951 NEAAD tournament.

In the first round, Worcester easily eliminated Sporal 43-20, while Providence did away with Hartford 50-32. Fairfield who was embarrassed by Worcester in the finals of the 1951 tourney defeated Boston 58-36. Holyoke who had received the bye, lost to defending champion Worcester 36-21 while Providence prevented Fairfield's right to erase the 1951 thrashing by Worcester by a score of 33-29. In the consolation rounds, Holyoke defeated Hartford 40-38 to take the third place honors for the third time in the last four years.

This marked a great era for Ernest Ovitt, as he was members of a championship team for six of the first seven NEAAD tournaments. He was a member of the 1946 Lawrence Silent Club, the 1947 Lynn Deaf Athletic Club and four championships with Worcester, 1949-52. He failed to be on a championship team while he was with Holyoke in 1948, when Providence clinched the crown. Holyoke finished third that year. His dear friend and teammate, George Trudeau played from 1947 to 1952 with Ovitt, winning championships five out of six years.

NEAAD Basketball Tournament

Providence halts Worcester's bid for 5th consecutive title, 71-50

Edited by John Moore

The 8th Annual NEAAD tournament was held by Fairfield County Club for the Deaf at St. Mary's Gym in Norwalk, CT on the weekend of March 6-8, 1953. Chaired by Frank Iannuccio, this NEAAD tournament was one of the largest tournaments in history, totaling 12 games. Three were played on Friday evening, seven on Saturday, and the championship and consolation games played on Sunday. The aging Worcester team, undefeated for four straight years ran out of gas in the championship game against Providence, losing 71-50. George Trudeau's wasted effort of 24 points was bettered by a rising star in Edward Sedoma who totaled 28 points for the Providence Club.

In the first round on Friday, Fairfield County barely held back the surging Boston team 58-56. Fairfield was cruising along with a 12 point lead in the final quarter when Boston made a rush, and gave the locales a scare. Michael Sabia with his 19 points sealed the victory for Fairfield. In the second game, Worcester extended it's winning streak to 13 in tournament play with a 67-47 victory over Bridgeport. Ernest Ovitt and George Trudeau, the duo from Worcester scored 23 and 24 points respectively. In the final game of the night, Providence did away with Hartford 60-32. This was a early sign of who would win the NEAAD crown. Edward Sedoma and Robert Smith of Providence tallied a total of 38 points in the game.

In the second round on Saturday, Holyoke defeated Boston 42-37, while Sporal was handed its second consecutive thrilling loss, losing to Hartford 64-63. Oscar Shirley scored 25 points in leading Hartford over Sporal. John Winters, Jr. led the (See on Page 47) ➔

Sporal team with 20 points. Boston avenging its loss to Holyoke, defeated Bridgeport 58-52. Kenneth Doucette the eventual MVP of the 1953 tournament led Boston to victory, Keeping their bid for the consolation prize alive. Worcester again reminded Fairfield of their humiliating loss in the 1951 tournament by defeating them 54-45. George Trudeau again led the Worcester team with 23 points. Michael Sabia led the Fairfield team with 14 points. In the last game of the second round, Providence destroyed Holyoke's hopes for their first championship by a score of 62-45.

In the third round, the teams fought for the consolation prize. Fairfield avenged their third loss to Worcester in three years by defeating Hartford 50-43. Michael Sabia had an unbalanced performance, and scored only four points, two from foul shooting. Fairfield depended on Leroy Fitts for the victory as he scored 17 points. Kenneth Doucette's magic failed as Holyoke eliminated Boston 54-44.

On Sunday, two games were played, the consolation game and the championship game Fairfield made the locales proud by taking third place over Holyoke 65-56. In this game, Michael Sabia sunk in a NEAAD record 12 free throws in a tournament game. His 28 points was too much for Holyoke to handle. Providence walked out of Norwalk proud victors over four time champion Worcester. This was to the beginning of a seven year dynasty by Providence.

Kenneth Doucette, who had turned 17, the MVP of the NEAAD tournament was ironically from a fifth place team, Boston. The reason why he was selected the MVP was the fact that he was the workhorse and scored a large percentage of the team's points. Without Doucette, Boston would have finished lower than fifth. Doucette also had not played a real basketball game prior to the tournament, and this was what made his feat remarkable. He was the youngest MVP ever selected at that time. The three day event in Norwalk excited many with the two thrillers Sporal gave prior to its elimination, and the way Providence won their games with ease.

9th Annual NEAAD Basketball Tournament

Providence defeats Worcester 84-55 for their second straight NEAAD crown

Edited by John Moore

The Boston Deaf Club hosted the 9th Annual NEAAD tournament at the Somerville High School Gym in Somerville, MA. Matthew Bachner, the general chairperson scheduled the tournament of 12 games over a span of two days, on Saturday February 20th and Sunday February 21st. Providence embarrassed Worcester 84-55 for their second straight championship. In this game, Edward Sedoma scored 39 points, which broke George Trudeau's tournament record of 35. Robert Smith sunk in 26 points for Providence, making the total between Smith and Sedoma 65 points. Worcester could not stop this trio of Sedoma, Smith and Henry Brenner as they scored 76 of Providence's 85 points. George Trudeau scored 24 points for Worcester, and that did not help them much as they lost by 30 points.

In the first round, Providence thrashed Holyoke 58-33, meanwhile Sporal did away with first time tournament entrant, Charter Oak from the Hartford vicinity 65-51. Robert Kass was the high scorer for Sporal with 26 points. Bridgeport defeated Cambridge 54-44. Host Boston could not regain the magic Doucette had in the previous year and lost to Worcester 39-22 in a low-scoring game.

In the second round, the consolation teams waged a battle for third place. Cambridge defeated Boston 29-27 dashing any hopes for the local team to gain a single victory. Holyoke eliminated Charter Oak from contention with a 44-20 victory. The final four teams for the championship battled later that day, Worcester making their sixth straight visit to the finals with a 50-40 victory over Bridgeport. Providence exercised their power by destroying Sporal 59-37. Edward Sedoma and Robert Smith were the high scorers for Providence with 16 and 18 points respectively.

On Sunday, the war for third place had come down to four teams, Bridgeport, Holyoke, Cambridge and Sporal. Bridgeport defeated Holyoke 34-29 and Sporal buried Cambridge 50-19. Robert Kass and John Gilbert both led Sporal with 14 points while David Burnes led the Cambridge trio with six points. Providence, the 1954 NEAAD Champions, walked through the tournament averaging 34 points leads over their opponents. Providence was so dominant that none of their opponents could keep them at bay. Providence had the likes of Edward Sedoma, Robert Smith and Henry Brenner who were such versatile athletes. Brenner had played football for the University of Rhode Island and was named National Alpha Epsilon Pi's " Jewish Athlete of the Year" and was elected to the Little All-American team. They made the Rhode Island School for the deaf's athletic tradition shine as the entire Providence squad attended the Rhode Island School for the Deaf. No other team was to touch the NEAAD championship trophy for another six years.

10th Annual NEAAD Basketball Tournament

Providence Club steps on Sporal for third straight NEAAD title

Obtained fromProvidence Journal - Edited by John Moore

This tournament marked a decade of tournament play in New England. It was chaired by Kimball Nash and held at the Hope High School gym in Providence, RI on the dates of February 19th & 20th 1955. This was the largest tournament played in NEAAD history, in which 14 games were played over a span of two days. This made the players weary towards the end of the tournament. Providence defeated Sporal 68-57 in Sporal's first visit to the finals. It was the first time in seven years that Worcester failed to enter the NEAAD finals. Phil Stafford and Edward Sedoma led the Providence attack with 25 and 17 points respectively. Robert Smith of Providence won the MVP honors for his tournament play while Henry Brenner won the Sportsmanship trophy.

Through a drawing, Worcester and Hartford were forced to play the first game, before any other team played a game. Worcester narrowly edged Hartford 59-51. George Trudeau led Worcester with 28 points while Oscar Shirley led Hartford with 18 points. In the first round, Sporal eliminated Boston from the championship game contention with a score of 74-48. John Gilbert and John Winters led the Sporal team with 22 and 15 points respectively. Kenneth Doucette and David Burnes led the Boston team with 13 points each. Waterbury buried Cambridge 62-23. Roland Wages was the high scorer for Waterbury with 18 points. Providence demolished Fairfield by 49 points with a score of 75-26. Phil Stafford and Robert Smith led the Providence scoring attack with 20 and 21 points. A tired Worcester team, playing their second game of the day, was at last defeated by a fresh Holyoke team 46-45. This was a thriller in which George Trudeau scored 17 points for Worcester and Raymond L'Heureux sunk in 13 points for Holyoke.

The sixth game was played in the consolation round, and Fairfield proved Cambridge to be an ineffective opponent with a score of 47 to 18. Michael Sabia, the Fairfield star led the team with 11 points while Thomas Flaherty led Cambridge with six points. The following game in the consolation round was between Hartford and Boston. Hartford emerged as the victors and Thomas Desrosier and Oscar Shirley led the team with 14 points each. In the final four contention for the championship, Providence demolished Waterbury 76-37 and four of the Providence players were in double digits. Sporal defeated Holyoke 68-32 (See on Page 55) ➔ for the right to meet Providence in the finals.

In the consolation rounds on Saturday night, Worcester had to play their third game of the day. They had the misfortune to play the first game and last game of the day. The tired Worcester team was lucky enough to play a weary Fairfield team who also had played their third game of the day. Worcester eliminated Fairfield from tournament play 39-23. George Trudeau of Worcester was the only player to reach double digits with 16 points while Ted Mallory led the Fairfield team with 7 points. The Worcester team dragged themselves off the court that night to bed, just glad they could play one more game on Sunday.

The next game pitted Hartford against their interstate rival, Waterbury, and Hartford emerged as the victors with the score of 69-43. Oscar Shirley led the Hartford team with 26 points and Robert Wages was the sole player with double digits for Waterbury with 12 points. Worcester playing in their fourth game in two days, defeated Holyoke 41-33. Holyoke was the team that kicked Worcester for their aspirations to meet with Sporal or Providence enroute to the championship game. George Trudeau once again led the Worcester trio with 21 points while Raymond L' Heureux led the Holyoke club with 10 points. Immediately after this game, Worcester had to warm up their sneakers again to play against Hartford, the very team that they defeated in the first game of the tournament. The weary Worcester squad playing in their fifth game in two days, a feat of endurance, was defeated by Hartford 75-63. Worcester came out with a 3-2 record in tournament play. Edward Frith of Hartford amassed 34 points while George Trudeau of Worcester tried to match Frith with 29 points. Trudeau scored 111 points in five games during the 1955 NEAAD tournament. Providence was glad to walk away with their third consecutive NEAAD crown.

Robert Smith, one of the many Providence stars was elected as the tournament MVP. Many of the Providence players other than Smith vastly contributed to Providence's undefeated three year streak, giving them the opportunity to match Worcester's string of four straight NEAAD championships.

11th Annual NEAAD Basketball Tournament

Providence matches Worcester's streak of four straight championships by defeating Worcester 57-52

Holyoke Transcript-Telegram - Edited by John Moore

Held at the City Hall Auditorium in Holyoke, Massachusetts, the 11th Annual NEAAD tournament chaired by Wilfred Gunther of the Holyoke Athletic and Social Club was declared a success, resulting in the fourth consecutive championship by Providence. Played on the dates of February 18 and 19th 1956, this tournament attracted over 300 fans from all over New England. Those fans were hardy people who drove through a heavy snowstorm to see the games on Saturday morning. The snowstorm kept people at home except for loyal members of the NEAAD. Two of the teams had to drive through the snow to make the tournament on Saturday morning. A total of 12 games were played.

The powerful Providence team with Edward Sedoma leading the way, could not be manhandled by any team during the tournament. Providence did away with Worcester 57-52, who had failed to stop Providence for the third time in the last four years. Edward Sedoma and Phillip Stafford led the Providence grid with 16 points each. Francis Ross led with 14 points for the Worcester squad. Worcester actually led 27-24 at halftime, Providence pulled away in the second half, resulting in victory. A major factor was the eight foul shots that Edward Sedoma had sunk in. Providence had 15 foul shots made while Worcester had 10. This five point margin in foul shooting was equal to the margin at the end of the game, 57-52. Worcester sorely missed George Trudeau who was fouled out in the third period on personal. MVP
Edward Sedoma
Providence

excellent shooting and defensive play would have made the score closer due to Providence's shaky field goal shooting throughout the game.

The tournament began with Holyoke edging Sporal 40-39. Led by Walter Bajorek's 11 points and George Trudeau's friend and former teammate, Ernest Ovitt, Holyoke was able to defeat a good ballclub in Sporal. In Game 2, Worcester narrowly avoided a first round loss for the second straight year by defeating Waterbury 48-47. George Trudeau led the Worcester squad with 17 points, but the high scorer of the game belonged to Waterbury's Bruce Behrer who had 18 points. Waterbury led 26-24 at halftime, but Worcester prevailed. In Game 3, Hartford put Boston into the consolation rounds, 48-35 thanks to Oscar Shirley's 24 points. Boston kept the game close until halftime when they trailed by only 3 points, 21-18. In Game 4, Defeating champion Providence easily sent Bridgeport to the consolation rounds with Boston 65-43. The major reason for Providence's suffocating attack on Bridgeport was Edward Sedoma and Robert Smith who had 31 and 18 points respectively.

In the second round of the tournament, Worcester defeated Holyoke 50-45 to enter the finals for the seventh time in the last eight years. George Trudeau led the Worcesterians with 13 points which were small marbles compared to his former teammate, Ernest Ovitt of Holyoke who had 22 points. It was the first time that those two players had played against each other. Both Trudeau and Ovitt were stars for the four time champion Worcester squad from 1949-52. Providence, due to Sedoma's 29 points defeated Hartford 54-49 to enter the finals for the fifth consecutive year. Oscar Shirley led THe Hartford team with 20 points. It was a disappointment for Hartford as they tried year after year to make to the finals. But they were denied by two clubs, namely, Providence and Worcester. In this game, Edward Sedoma broke Michael Sabia of the Fairfield club's 12 free throws made with 15 made. This record still stands to this day. Sedoma also sank in a total of 32 free throws made in three games during the tournament.

In the consolation rounds, the battle for third waged on, Sporal crushed Waterbury 51-19, that showed how good Sporal was compared to Worcester's first round victory of 48-47 over Waterbury. John Gilbert of Sporal was the high scorer with 14 points. Donald Niemeyer could manage only five points as Waterbury's lead scorer. Bridgeport then rendered Boston winless in the tournament, 64-48. Jacob George came within one point of tying Edward Sedoma's tournament record of 39 points by making 38 points for Bridgeport. Everett Annis led the Boston trio with 14 points. Sporal and Hartford played their third game of the day, trying to keep their hopes alive for a court date on Sunday. Sporal limited their second consecutive opponent to 19 points, by defeating Hartford 36-19. Sporal's excellent defensive play limited Oscar Shirley of Hartford to a mere 12 points, and no other player could manage more than 2 points. Holyoke edged Bridgeport by one field goal, 42-40 to gain a rematch with Sporal. Ernest Ovitt maintained his shooting for Holyoke with 14 points, while Jacob George of Bridgeport could not even match half of his previous game's point total with 15 points. In the consolation finals on Sunday, the match pitted Holyoke against Sporal. In the first round, Holyoke edged Sporal 40-39. This ruined a great Sporal team from making to the finals again. Sporal avenged this by defeating Hartford 59-37, a 22 point margin. Again Sporal's defense was the key for their victory, as well as John Gilbert, Robert Kass and David Burnes's contributions of 19, 17 and 15 points respectively. During the consolation rounds, Sporal limited their opponents to 25 points a game.

Due to his excellent play during the tournament and in leading Providence to their fourth straight title, Edward Sedoma won the Most Valuable Player award. Robert Kass of the Sporal won the Sportsmanship award for his excellent conduct during the tournament. During this tournament, there was a debate on dividing up the NEAAD tournaments. They spoke of having a tournament in Connecticut, one in Massachusetts and perhaps one for the northern part of New England. This never materialized and NEAAD continued to have tournaments for all of New England.

12th Annual NEAAD Basketball Tournament

Providence wins a record fifth straight NEAAD title over Worcester, 70-66 with Sedoma's 45 points

Providence Journal - Edited by John Moore

This Tournament was held held in Bridgeport, Connecticut on February 23 & 24 1957, and was chaired by Robert DeGioao. Played in the Knights of Columbus gym, a total of 12 games were played. Due to a lost scorebook, that cannot be retrieved, most of the scores during the tournament cannot be told. Providence emerged as the victors of the championship game, defeating Worcester 70-66, an opponent Providence had faced five times in the last six years. Worcester managed to make to the finals for the eighth time in the last 9 years. Providence was an "one man team" during this game as Edward Sedoma set a new NEAAD record with his 45 points. Sheldon Freedman led the Worcesterians with 25 points. Enduring basketball star, George Trudeau contributed 12 points for Worcester. The Worcester club consisted of a few individuals from the former Sporal club who was recognized during the 1956 tournament for their excellent defensive play. The match between Providence and Worcester was a good one compared to the two blowouts Providence handled to Holyoke and Cambridge.

During the first round, Worcester remembered the narrow win they had over Waterbury the previous year, and defeated them 68-45. Bridgeport edged Hartford 55-53, and this denied Oscar Shirley's trio from advancing in the tournament. Holyoke defeated Boston 43-31, giving Boston their eighth successive defeat since the 1953 tournament. Then Providence gave the most embarrassing loss in tournament history, only equaled by Worcester's mighty wallop of Fairfield which ensured in a 79 point margin. Providence had limited Cambridge to only 10 points, a tournament record, by winning 78-10. In this game, Edward Sedoma tallied in 41 points, only to be surpassed by his 45 points in the championship game. For the Cambridgians, William Kelley, Jr. could only manage four points. Cambridge made only three field goals in the (See on page 63) ➪ entire game.

In the second round of the tournament, Worcester defeated Bridgeport to make a trip to the finals once again. The score does not exist due to lost records. Providence defeated Holyoke 52-16, giving Providence the status of limiting their first two opponents to an average of 13 points . Edward Sedoma led the Providence gridders with 16 points, while Walter Bajorek contributed 6 points for Holyoke. The trips Worcester and Providence have made to the finals are the most by any team at that time. Only four teams have won the championships, Lawrence, Lynn, Providence and Worcester. Both Providence and Worcester have taken home the Championships since 1948, a span of ten in a row.

In the consolation rounds, Waterbury defeated Boston 37-28, giving Boston their ninth straight loss, and winless in three straight NEAAD tournaments. The defection of Kenneth Doucette and Bruce Fitzpatrick hurt the Boston club. Hartford defeated Cambridge, score Unknown due to loss of records. Bridgeport then defeated Waterbury 33-23 in a low scoring game to win a trip to the consolation finals. Hartford then defeated Holyoke to make to the consolation finals. Hartford then gained sole possession of third place by eliminating Bridgeport 70-61. Oscar Shirley's gang had avenged their first round loss to Bridgeport.

Worcester's squad consisted of many former Boston and Sporal players, with one goal in mind, to prevent Providence from winning their fifth successive title. They came close by losing to Providence by four points. Providence's dynasty in the NEAAD could not be stopped due to Edward Sedoma who won the MVP honors for the second straight year. Sedoma had amassed 102 points in the tournament, and scored 40 plus points in two games, where as, no player in NEAAD history had scored 40 points at that point. Four games were played on Sunday, balancing out the 12 game schedule. In the past, the majority of the games were played on Saturdays, often leaving two or three games for Sundays.

13th Annual
NEAAD Basketball Tournament

Providence does it again, defeating Boston 59-35, for sixth straight title

Providence Journal - Edited by John Moore

In one of the most exciting tournaments in NEAAD history, held at Our Lady of Mt. Carmel recreation gym in Worcester, Massachusetts on February 22 & 23, 1958. Salvatore DiNatale was the general chairperson and Worcester Deaf Club was the host. This tournament involved a major upset Of Worcester by Boston's George Finn, Jr.'s hook shot as time ran out. Providence won their sixth straight championship over Boston 59-35, ensuring Providence as the team of the 50's in NEAAD history. Edward Sedoma once again led the Providencians with 24 points, while Bruce Fitzpatrick was the only Boston player in double figures with 13 points.

Boston and Bridgeport received byes in this eight game format, and in the first round, Providence defeated Waterbury 47-29, sedoma was Providence's leader with 17 Points. Eighteen year old Buddy Penfield tallied 10 points for Waterbury. The favored Worcester team easily did away with Holyoke 71-26. Sheldon Freedman led the Worcesterians with 18 points. The Worcester team once again teamed George Trudeau and Ernest Ovitt together, in hopes of outsing Providence. Due to other rising stars in Sheldon Freedman, John Gilbert, Ernest Ovitt and George Trudeau tallied low scores.

In the second round, Providence defeated Bridgeport 78-50 to gain a trip to the finals for the seventh straight year. Edward Sedoma and Robert Smith tallied in 25 and 29 points respectively for Providence. No one on the Holyoke squad could come up with double figures. In the surprise game of the tournament, the Favored Worcester squad came to meet Boston who had lost nine straight NEAAD tournament games in row. The fans at the gym felt that Worcester would easily take care of Boston, and once again meet with Providence in the finals. As they returned from their lunches, they were shocked to see confusion on the (See on next page) ➪

1958 NEAAD CHAMPION - PROVIDENCE

Boston's surprising upset of Worcester, 39-38. with a few seconds ticking away on the clock, George Finn, Jr. an unheralded player of the Boston team was given the ball at half-court with Worcester leading 38-37. Finn then made a desperation hook shot, and it sunk in giving Boston an amazing victory over Worcester who were groomed to stop Providence's dynasty. Only one on the Worcester squad had scored in double digits. That was George Trudeau. It was declared a "choke" as Worcester was primed to contest with Providence for the championship.

In the consolation rounds, Holyoke edged Waterbury 37-35 while Worcester stunned by their loss to Boston won over Bridgeport 42-36. George Trudeau led the Worcesterians with 16 points and Robert Whipple of Bridgeport had 14 points. In the consolation final, Worcester easily demolished their first round opponent, Holyoke with a score of 64-18. George Trudeau and Sheldon Freedman led the Worcester gridders with 20 and 22 points respectively. The Holyoke squad did not have anyone scoring more than 4 points.

In this tournament, one of the most exciting games in NEAAD history was played, and Providence had to thank Boston. It was because they did not have to sweat out another final with Worcester, their fiercest rival over the past 10 years. It was Worcester's second time in missing the final in the last ten years. Providence's Edward Sedoma was awarded his third straight MVP, for his outstanding play during the tournament. No one scored 30 or more points during the tournament, a stark comparison to the previous year when Sedoma scored 40 plus points twice.

14th Annual NEAAD Basketball Tournament

Providence, wins 7th Straight NEAAD title 65-56 over Boston

Edited by John Moore

Sponsored by Waterbury Silent Club of Waterbury, Connecticut, the 14th Annual NEAAD tournament was at St. Stanislaus Crystal Ball in Meriden, Connecticut on February 21 & 22, 1959. Chaired by Mario Di Genio, this tournament was the first Waterbury hosted. Providence made this tournament a memorable one by winning their seventh straight championship. It also was their eighth championship in the past 12 years, making Providence the greatest team of the 1950's. Providence accomplished this feat by eliminating Boston 65-56, the same opponent they faced the year before.

This tournament, the well regarded Worcester team had folded, and many of its players played for Boston and Hartford. This made Boston an improved team, enabling them to have a better winning percentage than in the past several years. With former Worcester players such as Robert Kass, Kenneth Monahan and Sheldon Freedman, Boston had the players needed to reach the finals for the second consecutive year. This time, they did it with their ability, not by a fluke shot that shocked Worcester the previous year. This tournament consisted of only six teams, which reminded fans of the days of the first NEAAD tournament in 1946.

Bridgeport and Hartford drew byes to compete in the second round, meanwhile Boston proved its strength by defeating Holyoke 66-31. Providence overcame a tough Waterbury team on Waterbury's home court 53-49 to advance to the second round. In the second round, Boston did not give Bridgeport a chance to advance by eliminating them 45-39. This gave Boston the right to play against Providence after they had defeated Hartford 58-47.

In the consolation rounds, Holyoke defeated Waterbury 37-32 destroying Waterbury's bid to win a game for their fans. Bridgeport pulled out a squeaker over Hartford 45-43. Bridgeport then defeated Holyoke 66-50 to give third place for the state of Connecticut. The order suited for the states involved in the NEAAD as Rhode Island (Providence) was first, Massachusetts (Boston) was second, and so forth. David Burnes of Boston won MVP honors for his excellent play in leading Boston to the finals with Providence. The fans went home wondering if Providence could continue their dynasty into the 1960's.

15th Annual NEAAD Basketball Tournament

Bridgeport halts Providence's streak at 7 with 88-73 victory for NEAAD title

Edited by John Moore

Hosted by Hartford Club for the Deaf, the 15th Annual NEAAD tournament was held at American School for the Deaf's gym. Held on the dates of February 20 & 21, 1960, it was chaired by Joseph Palka. A total of seven teams played, and it also marked the return of the Worcester team after a year of absence. Worcester players who had played for other teams or had temporarily "retired" returned to play. Providence came into the tournament with hopes of extending their streak to eight. They came close by reaching the finals, competing with Bridgeport for the title. Bridgeport had the advantage this time by defeating Providence 88-73 on a Sunday afternoon. Providence went home, their hopes dashed into making themselves the team of the 60's. Providence's golden era had skidded to a halt.

In the first round, Hartford received the bye to play against the victor of the Providence-Worcester game. Providence defeated Worcester 48-32, ousting Worcester's bid to defeat Providence for the first time since the 1952 NEAAD finals. Bridgeport humiliated Waterbury 95-24, a 71 point advantage, not seen since the 79 point destruction of Fairfield by Worcester back in 1951. Boston with their defensive prowess, manhandled Holyoke 40-19. In the second round, a fresh Hartford team lost to Providence 50-41. Now Providence had reached the finals for the ninth straight year. Bridgeport exercised their muscles in affirming that they deserved to be NEAAD champions by defeating Boston 71-46.

In the consolation rounds, Worcester defeated Waterbury 57-37, burying their hopes for their first victory in three years. Holyoke gave the fans a tense time by edging Hartford 46-44. Worcester eliminated Holyoke 54-30 to gain the right to meet with Boston for third place honors. Boston affirmed themselves as a good team with David Burnes, the 1959 NEAAD MVP, Sheldon Freedman and Robert Kass, and defeated Worcester 54-35 for third place.

Bridgeport was the best team assembled by any club other than Worcester and Providence since the Lawrence and Lynn days in the heydays of the NEAAD tournament. Bridgeport's offense was dominant during the tournament, averaging 84 points a game. Their offense was sparked by Quentin Amati, Sr. who used to play for the former EAAD repeat champion Union League of New York. His excellent play won him MVP honors for the 1960 NEAAD tournament.

16th Annual NEAAD Basketball Tournament

Boston halts Providence's attempt to win NEAAD crown 59-52 for their first ever NEAAD championship

edited by John Moore

Edward S. Buell, one of the founders of the NEAAD, chaired the 16th Annual NEAAD tournament for the Bridgeport Athletic Association of the Deaf in Bridgeport, Connecticut. Played at the Sacred Hearts High School gym, this tournament attracted six teams. Once again missing from contention was Worcester, whose players such as George Trudeau and John Philip had once again emigrated to Hartford. Boston who was well rested after receiving a bye, played only two games to win the NEAAD championship. They faced two difficult teams, the 1960 NEAAD champion Bridgeport team and the eight time winner, Providence. Boston defeated Providence 59-52 to bring Boston their first ever championship trophy. Boston's lead scorers were Sheldon Freedman and Joseph Nistico, Jr. who had 11 points each. Providence was led by Dennis Phillipe's 26 points, but it was not enough. Boston did what Sporal failed for the city of Boston thanks to the great Providence dynasty of the 50's.

The first round pitted Bridgeport was led by Kelvin Brand's 25 points. Providence upended Waterbury 63-37. Providence had three players in double figures, Dennis Phillipe, Lewis Clark, Jr. and Robert Bergeron. Edward Sedoma, the heralded Providence star was absent from this team. In the second round, a fresh Boston team defeated the defending champion Bridgeport 55-52. Sheldon Freedman's 21 points was the key for Boston's victory.

Providence gave their fans their closet game in years by barely getting by Holyoke 41-40. At halftime, Holyoke had shot ahead to a 23-10 lead, but faded in the end, and Providence emerged as the lucky victors. Led by Dennis Phillipe's 18 points, Providence gained their right to the finals for a full decade.

In the consolation rounds, Hartford humiliated Waterbury, rendering them winless in 3 years, with a score of 43-19. George Trudeau led the Hartford club with 12 points. Bridgeport avenged their loss to eventual champion Boston by thumping Holyoke 50-28. Edward Dawson of Bridgeport led all scorers with 25 points. None of the players on Holyoke squad had double figures. Bridgeport proved themselves worthy for third place honors by eliminating Hartford 64-48. Edward Dawson of Bridgeport once again led all scorers with 23 points in this game.

Ironically Boston had limited both of their powerful opponents to exactly 52 points each. Sheldon Freedman of Boston won MVP honors for his stellar play in leading Boston to their first NEAAD crown. Providence sorely missed Edward Sedoma, and the close game between Providence and Boston indicated that Providence may have won with Sedoma on court. The Providence squad consisted of a few players who had joined them in hopes of being on a championship team, only to have their hopes dashed.

17th Annual NEAAD Basketball Tournament

Hartford wins their first NEAAD crown over Boston 67-54

Edited by John Moore

The 17th Annual NEAAD tournament was chaired by Joseph Ricciuti of the Boston Deaf Club. Held in the Somerville High school in Somerville, Massachusetts on February 17&18, 1962. Bridgeport and Waterbury did not participate in this tournament. Worcester returned from another year of absence, and wasn't the same team, as they left the tournament winless. Thanks to Eddie Hill's 14 points and stellar play from Robert Rudnicki and James Thomas, Hartford was able to do away with defending champion Boston 67-54. Bernard Gibbons's 21 points did not help Boston. Eddie Hill was able to Contribute due to his excellent free throw shooting in the final stages of the game.

In the first round, Holyoke did away with Worcester 56-27. They won due to former Worcester star, George Trudeau's 24 points which nearly matched Worcester's score. At halftime, Holyoke was leading only by one point, 16-15, then they blew open the game. Providence had a easy game with Norwich, a new club in tournament play, disposing of them with a score of 60-31. Dennis Phillipe and Edward Sedoma led the Providence club with 17 points each. In the second round, Hartford stopped Holyoke 48-27. Robert Shepard had 18 points for Hartford, while George Trudeau, with his 10 points, totaled 35 percent of Holyoke's offense. Providence was not the same team as before, as they lost to Boston 63-49. Boston's Kenneth Doucette and Bernard Gibbons led the team with 16 and 17 points respectively. Edward Sedoma led Providence with 24 points, but what hurt the team was Dennis Phillipe's off game of 6 points.

In the consolations, Norwich won the battle for fifth by defeating Worcester 54-45. Providence won the bid for third by eliminating Holyoke 58-49. Eddie Hill of Hartford won MVP honors for his stellar play in helping Hartford to their first championship in 17 tries. Three different teams had won the championships since Providence lost the bid for their eight straight title to Bridgeport in 1960.

18th Annual NEAAD Basketball Tournament

Patriots Club of Boston edges Holyoke 51-50 for their first NEAAD championship

Edited by John Moore

The eighteenth annual NEAAD tournament was hosted by the Providence Club for the Deaf on the dates of February 16 and 17 in the year 1963. It was played in two gyms, one being the South Providence Boy's Club and at the Rhode Island School for the Deaf, both near each other in Providence, Rhode Island. That year fielded teams from seven different clubs, and two were new. The New Bedford club and the Mohawk Oak club came into existence in tournament play. The Mohawk Oaks hailed from Springfield, Massachusetts, and was composed of former Clarke School for the Deaf students. Worcester and Hartford were not able to field teams this year.

Holyoke was within one field goal of winning their first championship, but the Patriots was strong enough to withstand their onslaught to win the championship game. With players like Bernard Gibbons, Sheldon Freedman and Robert Kass, the Patriots were able to prevent Holyoke from making that extra necessary basket for a victory. Holyoke had the ever durable George Trudeau who was playing in his 17th straight NEAAD tournament, Robert Shepard and Eddie Hill, Sr. At halftime, the Patriots led by 5 points 26-21 over Holyoke. The difference here was that Holyoke made only 8 out of their 20 free throws, while Patriots were often fouled by the Holyoke players, and made 21 out of their 36 free throws. This was the win-loss differential in this game. Good examples are Sheldon Freedman who did not make a field goal in this game but sunk in 7 out of 8 free throws for his 7 points.

Since there were seven teams, Holyoke received the bye and played in the second round. Bridgeport easily did away with the Mohawk Oak team whose offense relied on (See on page 86) ➔

MVP
Sheldon Freedman
Patriot (Boston)

Donald Tucker with a score of 62-23. The margin was so bad, that the game was already decided at halftime, with a score of 35-8. Tucker of Mohawk Oak scored more than half of his team's points while Edward Dawson led Bridgeport with 25 points. Dawson scored two points more than the entire Mohawk Oak team. Another lopsided game came along when Providence humiliated Boston 66-29. Edward Sedoma was still the big man on the Providence team scoring 33 points, while none on the Boston club could manage more than seven points. The Patriots welcomed New Bedford located near Cape Cod in Massachusetts with their first loss, 51-37. Dennis Phillipe was the big man on the "Whaling City" team (New Bedford) with 17 points while the points were evened out with the Patriots, and Joseph Nistico, Jr. led with 14 points.

In the second round, Holyoke edged Bridgeport 44-43 to gain the right to meet the winner of the Providence-Patriots game. Bridgeport led 17-16 at halftime, but Holyoke came away the victor in a very tight game. Robert Shepard led Holyoke with 17 points and Kelvin Brand led the Bridgeporters with 20 points. Next came a hot game, between Providence and Patriots. The Patriots held Edward Sedoma to a mere 7 points but could not contain Robert Smith as he had 20 points. Sheldon Freedman made 6 out of 10 free throws, and four field goals to lead the Patriots with 14 points. Bernard Gibbons gave his contribution to the Patriots with 12 points and he sunk 4 out of 5 free throws. The Patriots led 18-17 at the half, and they had made one more field goal and free throw than Providence, and that keyed the Patriots' victory.

In the consolation rounds, Mohawk Oak was humbled by the Boston team 40-11. Boston's great defensive play limited Mohawk Oak to only 11 points, the second lowest point total by a team in NEAAD history. Cambridge achieved this embarrassing honor by losing to Providence 78-10 in 1957. Unfortunately Boston had to play with Providence again, and they once again embarrassed the Boston team 34-18. The low score in the game marked great defensive play by both teams. None of the players in the game had more than 8 points. Boston made only 5 field goals and that really hurt them. Providence was leading 20-12 at halftime, but limited Boston to only 6 points in the second half. New Bedford surprised the Bridgeport team by edging them 48-47 to gain the right to play with the still powerful Providence team. Providence then stopped the surging whalers from New Bedford 69-61. The Whalers could not stop Edward Sedoma of Providence as he made 12 field goals and 7 out of 9 free throws for a total of 31 points. Thomas Hickey led the New Bedford team with 26 points.

This tournament was an exciting one with three games won by only one point, and Sheldon Freedman was selected as the MVP for his outstanding play in leading the Patriots to the NEAAD crown. Freedman had made 18 out of 24 free throws during the three game stretch that the Patriots won enroute to the championship. Many of his free throws were critical as they helped the Patriots defeat Providence and Holyoke. Boston was proud to have another championship team team hailing from Boston. The Boston Deaf Club had previously won the NEAAD crown in 1961.

19th Annual NEAAD Basketball Tournament

Worcester's comeback bid halted by Patriots 70-62

Edited by John Moore

In the 19th annual NEAAD tournament held by Worcester Deaf Club on February 22 and 23 in 1964. The games were played at Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Recreation Center in Worcester, Mass. Played by only five teams, a new bracket format was selected, and Worcester and Providence had to play the first game, and the victor of this game played against Waterbury. The Patriots won their second straight NEAAD championship by defeating a Worcester team that had came back from the dead after missing a few tournaments. It provided for the reincarnation of the George Trudeau-Ernest Ovitt teamup of the early days of the NEAAD's. Led by the Freedman brothers, Sheldon with 16 points and David with 18 points, the Patriots were able to hold back a strong Worcester club that had eliminated Providence in the first round. Bernard Gibbons also contributed to the Patriots with his 16 points. Robert Shepard carried the load for Worcester with 25 points.

In the first round, Worcester celebrated the end of their frustration by finally defeating Providence 56-54. This marked Worcester's first victory over Providence since their 58-56 win during the 1952 championship game. Worcester was frustrated by Providence's steak of seven straight championships, and Worcester often had to settle for second place. Robert Shepard led the Worcesteries with 19 points while Dennis Phillipe led the Rhode Islanders with 17 points.

In the second game played, Hartford lost out to the Patriots 49-45. The Patriots' victory due to the fact that Sheldon Freedman sunk in 14 out of his 18 free throws. Sheldon Freedman was one free throw away from tying Edward Sedoma's NEAAD record of 15 free throws. Sheldon came away with 20 points, while Richard Osgood led the Hartforders with 16 points. In game three, a fresh Waterbury team played against Worcester, but Worcester proved their strength by eliminating Waterbury from championship contention 60-49. Robert Shepard was the big man in the game for Worcester as he had 29 points. Raymond Kellogg had 22 points for Waterbury but it was not enough.

In the consolation rounds, a weary Waterbury team lost to Providence 38-26. thomas hickey led the Providence team with 10 points. Providence had led 18-10 at the half. Hartford then defeated Providence 65-62 for third place honors. This marked a great comeback by the Hartford club as Providence was leading 42-29 at the half. Robert Shepard of Worcester attained MVP honors for his outstanding play during the tournament. He averaged 24 points a game and was consisted throughout the tournament. Without him, Worcester would not have made to the championship games with the powerful Patriots team led by Sheldon Freedman.

20th Annual
NEAAD Basketball Tournament

Hartford wins their second NEAAD crown 66-46 over Providence

Edited by John Moore

Holyoke Athletic and Social Club for the Deaf with their chair, John L. Gendron, Jr. hosted the 20th annual NEAAD basketball tournament at the John J. Lynch School in Holyoke, MA. Played by seven teams on the dates of February 20th and 21st in 1965. Holyoke received the bye in the tournament and would meet the Providence-Bridgport victor. Hartford won their second championship at a span of three years after many years of frustration on the courts. Providence was Hartford's victim as they lost to them by 20 points, 66-46. It was a fitting number, a 20 point margin to match the 20th anniversary of the NEAAD. Four players on the Hartford club had double digits while Robert Smith and Thomas Hickey were the only ones on the Providence team that had substantial scoring. Hartford had led 29-15 at the half, and the game was over long before it ended.

In the first round, Providence defeated Bridgeport 54-40, it was a game that Bridgeport had led at the half 28-27 but Providence took advantage of their weakness in the second half for victory. Hartford easily buried Boston 75-27. Hartford led 31-6 at the half, and Hartford dominated the entire game with help from Paul Rinas, James Thomas and Robert Rudnicki. Worcester gave another Boston-based team an drubbing, by defeating the Patriots 78-28, a 50 point margin. Worcester had led 39-15 at the half, and extended their margin in the second half. Led by Dennis Phillipe's 16 points, the Worcester team made 14 out of 19 free throws while the Patriots could only manage 6 out of their 20 free throws.

In the second round, Providence embarrassed the host team, Holyoke 67-18. That was the third straight drubbing of a team on that Saturday. The past three games were decided by 48, 50 and 49 point margins. Joseph Strakaluse led the Providence team with 20 points, while Raymond L' Heureux scored 13 out of Holyoke's 18 points. The next game was an even-matched game between Hartford and Worcester. Hartford came off on the winning end, defeating an excellent Worcester squad 62-58. Richard Osgood led the Hartfordians with 19 points meanwhile (See on next page) ➡

Bernard Gibbons had 18 for Worcester. Worcester could not overcome the halftime margin that Hartford had built. Hartford led 36-28 at the half.

In the consolations, a very strange game occurred. Holyoke had won by scoring only 18 points! Boston, the loser managed only 16 points. This score looked like it came from a football game rather than a basketball game. Boston led 9-6 at the half and could only manage 7 points in the second half. Holyoke had 12 points in the second half to ensure their home fans a victory when they were hosting the tournament. The lead scorer for both teams was Joseph Nistico, Jr. who had 6 points. Holyoke missed all of their free throws in five tries, while Boston made only 2 out of 7. Both teams scored only 34 points, the lowest points in a game by both teams in NEAAD history. It was an embarrassment for both teams.

In the second round of the consolations, Holyoke played against Worcester. Since Holyoke had just finished a hard-fought game physically and mentally, Holyoke called it quits at the half when Worcester was leading 31-11. Holyoke decided it was not worth continuing the game when they were guaranteed a loss by a good Worcester ballclub. Bridgeport gave another Boston club, the Patriots an embarrassing loss, limiting them to only 21 points while they won 61-21, a 40 point margin. This tournament had four games where the margins were 40 points or more and three of them came against Boston clubs, twice with the Patriots, just a year removed from their NEAAD championship. Worcester then won the most exciting game of the entire tournament for third place by defeating a good Bridgeport club who had Edward Dawson in overtime with a score of 93-85. At the half, Worcester led 39-36, but Bridgeport scored 6 more points than Worcester in the second half to tie up the game at 75 a piece. Edward Dawson led the Bridgeport club with 22 points and Fred Yeager was second with 18 points. Bernard Gibbons led the Worcester ballclub with 25 points. Bridgeport and Worcester both tallied 178 points, a new NEAAD record for one game.

Edward Dawson was elected the MVP of the 1965 NEAAD tournament for his excellent play for the Bridgeport club. In his three games he played, he scored 26, 34 and 22 points. Without him, Bridgeport would have not driven Worcester into overtime, nor would Bridgeport grant the Patriots an embarrassing loss. This tournament marked two NEAAD records, the two team low point total of 34 by the Holyoke-Boston game and the two team high point total of 178 points (Overtime) in the exciting game between Worcester and Bridgeport in the consolation finals.

21st Annual NEAAD Basketball Tournament

Worcester dethrones defending Champion Hartford 94-81

Edited by John Moore

Hosted by the Hartford Deaf Club, the 21st annual NEAAD tournament was held at the American School for the Deaf gym on February 25 & 26, 1966. Chaired by Joseph Marino, one of the Hartford Club's Founders, the tournament marked a return of the championship trophy to Worcester. Worcester won their fifth NEAAD crown, their first since 1952 by defeating a powerful Hartford club 94-81 with their key weapon, Robert Shepard. In this game, Robert Shepard had 20 points for Worcester but Dennis Phillipe and Robert Whipple had 28 and 26 points respectively. James Thomas contributed 27 points, his career high, for Hartford, but it was not enough as three Worcesteries had 20 plus points. Shepard, Phillipe and Whipple scored 74 of Worcester's 94 points.

In the first round, Hartford welcomed Thames Valley of New London to the NEAAD's with a resounding victory by a 40 point margin, 81-41. Five of Hartford's players scored in the double digits while Fredrick Staehle, Jr. led Thames Valley with 13 points. Springfield, set up and recruited by John Levesque surprised Bridgeport 64-62. Gordon Bergan sparked Springfield's victory with his 26 points. Kelvin Brand had 31 points and unfortunately that could not be used to hold back Springfield. Worcester gladly defeated Providence for the second straight meeting with another resounding score of 86-57. Long time player George Trudeau became the coach, but still played. Trudeau has not missed a tournament since he started playing in 1947.

In the second round, a fresh Waterbury team who had received the bye played against defending champion Hartford and lost 60-48. James Thomas led the Hartford squad with 21 points meanwhile Paul DonAroma, Jr. led the Waterbury club with 19 points. Worcester marched onto the championship game by outsing upstart Springfield 70-57. Robert Shepard led (See on page 99) ➔

MVP
Robert Shepard
Worcester

Worcester with 23 points while Gordon Bergan and James Sweeney had 24 and 21 points for Springfield. A lack of contribution in scoring from the rest of the team hurt the Springfield squad.

In the consolations, Bridgeport, determined to win third after a surprising loss to Springfield, defeated Thames Valley 60-47. Providence defeated Waterbury 46-41 to enter the consolation finals. Robert Smith led the Rhode Islanders with 18 points while Paul DonAroma, Jr. led the Waterbury squad with 13 points. Waterbury led 28-20 at the half but folded in the second half to grant Providence victory. Bridgeport, glad to mark their revenge on Springfield for their first round loss to them, defeated them 57-46. They kept an eye on Gordon Bergan by limiting him to 12 points. In the consolation finals, a hot game between Providence and Bridgeport began, and it was won by Bridgeport 90-87 in overtime. Providence led at the half 44-36, but Bridgeport gathered some steam and rallied to tie 80-80 at the end of regulation. Bridgeport had the momentum going to ensure them victory in the overtime period. Bridgeport was led by Kelvin Brand's 43 points while Thomas Hickey led the Ocean State with 21 points. Robert Shepard of Worcester won the MVP honors despite the fact that Kelvin Brand had 103 points in four games during the tournament. The reason why Robert Shepard won the MVP was that without him, Worcester may not have won the championship.

Robert Shepard of Worcester
Most Valuable Player

22nd Annual NEAAD Basketball Tournament

Worcester again defeats Hartford 72-58 for second straight NEAAD title

Edited by John Moore

Hosted by the Worcester Deaf Club, the tournament was held on the dates of February 18th and 19th on the year of 1967. This event was chaired by John Philip and held at Our Lady of Mount Carmel Recreation Center in Worcester. Robert Shepard helped Worcester win their second straight title over Hartford with his 28 point contribution. Herbert Pickering, Jr. of Hartford sunk in 21 points to lead his team in their valiant effort against a Shepard-powered Worcester club. Shepard ensured Worcester with a 24 point margin, in which without Shepard, the game between Worcester and Hartford would be too close to call.

In the first round in the six team tournament, Worcester defeated Bridgeport 63-52. Robert Shepard was the game's high scorer with 24 points. Hartford defeated Providence 45-43 to march onward to the finals for their third straight year. Edward Sedoma had 20 points for Providence upon his return to tournament play but it was not enough. Worcester then defeated Thames Valley 52-33. Robert Shepard was rested well for the upcoming championship game while John Tautkus took up the burden with his 17 point contribution. Hartford eliminated Springfield from contention 53-40. Springfield was not the same without Gordon Bergan as they only relied on James Sweeney and his 27 points.

In the consolation rounds, Providence did not give Bridgeport a chance in creating another overtime game, 42-34. But, Thames Valley stole the show in their dramatic 2 overtime victory over Springfield 54-52. At the end of regulation, the game was tied 46-46. The game was forced into a second overtime when the score was tied 52-all. Thames Valley scored the only basket of the second overtime to ensure themselves victory. William Magner formerly of the Patriots led Thames Valley with 25 points while Wayne Dore led his Springfield gang with 22 points. Providence then defeated Thames Valley 48-31 for third place honors.

Robert Shepard of Worcester won his second straight MVP, in parallel with Worcester's two straight championships.

23rd Annual NEAAD Basketball Tournament

Hartford defeats Worcester to regain NEAAD title, 88-74

Edited by John Moore

The tournament was held by the Thames Valley Club for the Deaf, Inc. on February 17 & 18, 1968. Chaired by Donald Murphy and the games were played at the Connecticut State Armoy in New London. Hartford ended a two year losing streak to Worcester in the finals, finally taking back the NEAAD title by defeating them 88-74. Hartford had five players in double digits in order to stop Robert Shepard and his teammates from Worcester. Worcester was loaded with several excellent players, several former All-Stars, and was primed to win another championship. But Hartford was too strong for Worcester to overcome.

In the first round, Worcester defeated Springfield 62-49. Springfield was resurgent with the All-Star play of John Levesque. Hartford bombed away Providence with one of their worst losses in history with a score of 110-22. In this game, Edward Dawson set a new overall tournament record with 48 points with 20 field goals breaking Kelvin Brand's record of 19 set in 1965. Hartford had a real lopsided 88 point margin over Providence. Worcester defeated Thames Valley 74-53 to earn the right to meet with Hartford for the fourth straight year in the finals.

In the consolation rounds, Springfield defeated Providence 44-31 to render Providence winless for the first tournament in their history. The aging Providence team did not have the youth and stamina they used to have to win seven straight championships during the 50's. Thames Valley won their first third-place berth in history by defeating Springfield 63-51.

The MVP honors was given to Albert Couthen who had 15 points, 14 assists and 14 rebounds during the championship game against Worcester. The double-triple game that Couthen was a feat many players could not achieve. Couthen won the MVP award despite the fact that his teammate Edward Dawson had scored 48 points in the first game against Providence.

24th Annual NEAAD Basketball Tournament

Hartford wins second straight NEAAD title 85-63 over Bridgeport

Edited by John Moore

Hosted by the Providence Club for the Deaf, the games were played at La Salle Academy on February 15 and 16 in 1969. Edward Sedoma was the General Chairperson and five teams were involved. A strange new format was developed, and Hartford received the bye only to play one game, the championship final. This format was voted and approved by NEAAD officers. They knew that Hartford was heavily favored, so they just gave Hartford the championship berth. Hartford, which was well rested, defeated a tired Bridgeport team who was playing in their third game of the tournament 85-63. Robert Shepard had transferred to Hartford from Worcester giving them an added boost with the likes of Roosevelt Cunningham and Albert Couthen. Robert Shepard of Hartford and Edward Dawson of Bridgeport both had 28 points. It was ironic as Edward Dawson had just defected to the Bridgeport team from Hartford.

In the first round, Thames Valley had to forfeit to Worcester as not enough players showed up to play a game. Worcester advanced to the second round well-rested. Bridgeport defeated Providence 62-54 with Edward Dawson and John Murphy's points. They had 25 and 22 points respectively. The Providence club received 12 points from Edward Sedoma the former star player who had led Providence to seven straight championships in the 1950's. In the second round, Bridgeport defeated Worcester 64-61 to meet with Hartford in the finals. Edward Dawson and Dewitt Henderson contributed with 16 and 17 points. Maurice Tardiff led the Worcester squad with 19 points.

In the consolations, the Thames Valley team all had arrived and played against Providence. They were defeated by Providence 53-48. Robert Raiche led the Rhode Islanders with 23 points. Providence defeated Worcester 84-63 in the consolation finals thanks to Robert Raiche's 37 points. Edward Sedoma tallied in 10 points in his final game of his career. He announced his retirement after this game. Maurice Tardiff was the leader with 21 points for Worcester.

Roosevelt Cunningham won the MVP honors in helping lead Hartford to the championship with stellar offensive and defensive play. He was also an excellent rebounder.

25th Annual NEAAD Basketball Tournament

Bridgeport crushes Providence 62-30 for NEAAD title to celebrate the 25th annual tournament

Edited by John Moore

The NEAAD hosted this special event at the Northeastern University gym in Boston, Massachusetts on Friday and Saturday February 13 & 14, 1970. The tournament was chaired by Thomas Desrosier, a long standing officer and member of the NEAAD. Bridgeport used a well-balanced attack from all their players especially John Tautkus and Hugo Guidi, Jr. to eliminate Providence 62-30. Bridgeport's stellar defense held Providence to a 27-9 halftime score. Only five teams played in this tournament, and Hartford, the defending champion did not participate due to hosting the 1970 25th EAAD tournament. Over 800 fans from all over New England attended this event.

In the first game, Providence defeated Worcester 46-40 on a Friday night in order to attend the finals. George Trudeau proved his versatility by scoring 10 points for Worcester in his 24th straight tournament he had played in. Bridgeport proved their ability to become champions by destroying Thames Valley 81-25 in Game 2 on Friday. John Tautkus was the lead scorer for Bridgeport with his 16 points. Bridgeport welcomed Quincy to their first ever game with a loss. The final score was 56-40, and John Tautkus was once again the lead scorer for Bridgeport with 16 points. Bernard Gibbons a stellar player during the 1960's contributed in with 13 points for Quincy.

In the consolations, Worcester defeated Thames Valley 53-38 to gain the right to meet Quincy for third place honors. George Trudeau showed the world that his age was not an obstacle by leading Worcester with 16 points. Robert Whipple scored 21 of Thames Valley's 38 points. In the consolation final, Quincy won their first tournament game over Worcester 76-59 to gain third place honors. Stephen Mauriello led the Quincy team with 26 points while Herbert Pickering, Jr. of Worcester had 21 points. Worcester settled for fourth place.

This year marked the first time that NEAAD had presented the Traveling Trophy. The previous 25 champions were engraved on this trophy, and it would travel to each club whose team that had won the NEAAD championship in future years for a year. This was something that clubs for the deaf could proudly show to their members how good their teams were during tournament play. John Tautkus won MVP honors for his steady and stellar play in leading Bridgeport to their championship.

Traveling Trophy

The traveling trophy to be awarded to the championship team of the 25th annual NEAAD basketball tournament is another first for the NEAAD. The trophy will be presented to the championship team at the Silver Anniversary Banquet of the NEAAD at the Sheraton-Boston Hotel.

The Traveling Trophy will be kept by the championship team for one year and then passed on to next tournament winner each year.

Since this is the first year a traveling trophy was awarded, the names of all championship teams during the previous 25 years were engraved on the top band at the base of the trophy. The bottom band will have engraved the names of the championship teams of the next 25 years.

Edmund Nazzaro, Athletic Director/captain of Bridgeport Team received the First Traveling Trophy from Hall of Fame chair, Leo Burke.

Hugo Guidi, Jr. of Bridgeport won the NEAAD Sportsmanship player trophy.

26th Annual NEAAD Basketball Tournament

Hartford edges Bridgeport for NEAAD crown 91-89

Edited by John Moore

The Worcester Club for the Deaf hosted the 26th annual NEAAD tournament at Worcester Boys Trade High School gym in Worcester, MA. The games were played on February 20 and 21 in 1971. Kenneth L. Thibault was the general chairperson for this event. Only six teams were involved in this tournament and Quincy received the bye to play against the Hartford/Providence winner. Worcester obtained a bye too to play against the Bridgeport/Holyoke winner. A new format was established to solidify who would get the first to last place berths. The teams who lost in the first round would automatically compete for fifth, and no way for them to try for third place. This made the tournament shorter and faster.

Hartford narrowly edged Bridgeport 91-89 to win their fifth championship in the last 10 years. Edward Pratt, Sr. led the Hartford squad with 40 points with 19 field goals. Robert Whelton led the Bridgeport team with 30 points. John Tautkus and Michael Charpentier had 20 points each for Bridgeport. John Tautkus had made 12 out of 13 free throws, and that really helped Bridgeport stay close to Hartford in the game. Tautkus had made 25 out of 32 free throws throughout tournament play. Roosevelt Cunningham free throws throughout tournament play. Roosevelt Cunningham won his second MVP with his stellar play, and he is probably the key to Hartford's hard fought battle for the championship trophy.

In the first round, Hartford defeated Providence 50-40 to play against Quincy. Roosevelt Cunningham of Hartford was the lead scorer in the game with 19 points. Bridgeport then mauled Holyoke 79-43 to meet with Worcester. James Sweeney of Holyoke led all scorers with 22 points. Hartford defeated a surging Quincy team 63-42 to enter the finals once again. Bruce Goulette of Quincy was the high scorer with 22 points. Bridgeport eliminated Worcester 80-67 to meet with Hartford in the finals. Edward Dawson and John Tautkus led the Bridgeport squad with 24 and 23 points respectively. But an older player, George Trudeau, aged 47 years scored 30 points for Worcester. It was Trudeau's 25th straight year in NEAAD tournament play.

In the battle for fifth place, Providence defeated Holyoke 43-30. In the consolation game for third place, Quincy defeated Worcester 70-54 to win third place honors for the second straight year. Bruce Goulette led the scorers with 23 points.

27th Annual NEAAD Basketball Tournament

Quincy holds back Providence for their first NEAAD crown 66-57

Edited by John Moore

This great event was hosted by the Bridgeport Athletic Association for the Deaf at the Archbishop Shehan Center gym. Played on the dates of February 19 and 20 in 1972 and chaired by John Shiloski. Hartford was once again absent due to hosting the 28th AAAD tournament for the second time in three years. This tournament marked the first time ever a team was fielded from Maine. Teams from four states participated in this tournament. Portland with some former basketball players and some athletic Gallaudetians came to the scene and gave some fierce competition. Quincy won their championship by defeating Providence 66-57. Bernard Gibbons was the lead scorer for Quincy with 17 points while Robert Raiche led the Ocean Staters with 18 points.

On Saturday morning, Bridgeport eliminated Worcester 53-44. Worcester had to accept the lowly 6th place status with this loss. Portland surprised many with their narrow victory over Holyoke 55-53. With the likes of William Nye, David Wood, Paul Rinas and others, the Portlanders gave the Holyoke team a hard time. Quincy defeated Bridgeport 59-42 to advance to the finals in their third year of existence. Bruce Goulette of Quincy led all scorers with 27 points. Providence had to struggle to defeat Portland 54-51 to advance to the finals.

In the consolation finals Portland won the battle with Bridgeport 66-61 to win third place honors in their first appearance in NEAAD tournament history. The Portland team had to drive hours from Maine to Bridgeport in Connecticut to be able to contend in the tournament. Bruce Goulette of Quincy won MVP honors for his stellar play in helping lead Quincy to the NEAAD Championship.

28th Annual NEAAD Basketball Tournament

Hartford returns from its absence to take back NEAAD crown from Quincy 81-76

Edited by John Moore

Edward Sedoma, the General Chairperson representing Providence Deaf club in hosting the games at the Rhode Island School for the Deaf's gym. The games were played on February 17th and 18th, 1973. Hartford won a hard fought game resisting Quincy's Robert Kalis who had 35 points. Hartford prevailed 81-76 and Edward Pratt, Sr. was Hartford's lead scorer with 24 points. Quincy players had made 14 out of 19 free throws, but they did not make enough field goals to win this game. Quincy was behind by 20 points at the start of the 4th period, but they refused to die, they rallied to a 3 point deficit with 45 seconds remaining. Hartford stopped the rally there and held on to victory. Quincy was a rising ballclub that was established only recently and represented the Boston area.

In the first round, Hartford easily mopped up Worcester 60-26. At halftime, Hartford was leading 25 to 15, then Hartford blew Worcester away with 35 second half points. Quincy defeated Holyoke 58-39 to advance. Providence who received the bye, played against a weary Hartford team who had to play a hour and half after their game with Worcester. Hartford again prevailed 65-59. Quincy eliminated Portland 53-45 to gain the right to meet with Hartford in the finals. Quincy made only 7 out of 20 free throw attempts, and that explained the close game.

In the consolation, the brackets were once again set up for all teams to compete for third place. Holyoke eliminated Worcester 43-38 to advance. Holyoke had made 11 out of 16 free throws while Worcester missed their only attempt. Worcester was leading 24-21 at the half. Providence rendered Portland winless in this tournament 59-42. Providence then won the upper hand in a high scoring game over Holyoke 84-67. Four of Providence's players scored in double digits to help Providence claim third place.

Roosevelt Cunningham of Hartford once again won the MVP award for his excellent and steady play throughout the tournament. He amassed 17, 16 and 18 points in his games, and his excellent all around play helped Hartford win their NEAAD championship.

29th Annual NEAAD Basketball Tournament

Hartford once again denies Quincy NEAAD crown, 81-71

Edited by John Moore

The 29th annual NEAAD basketball tournament was hosted by the Hartford Club for the Deaf and help at the Penny High School gym in East Hartford, Connecticut. The games were played at an early date, February 8th and 9th in 1974. Hartford won their second straight championship, twice over Quincy the 1972 champion. Hartford had won every tournament from 1968 to 1974 except for 1970 and 1972 when they hosted the EAAD and AAAD tournaments. They did not play those two years, and Hartford could have won seven straight championships with their powerful team. Yet they were a great team because they won 5 championships in five tries. The resulting score was 81-71 and Edward Pratt, Sr. was the lead scorer for Hartford with 20 points. Once again Robert Kalis could not help Quincy with 26 points. Hartford was playing without their MVP player, Roosevelt Cunningham.

In the first round, Bridgeport eliminated Providence from the tournament 59-26. This tournament had rules that the teams eliminated in the first round would not have a chance to compete for third and fourth places. Edward Sedoma helped out a weak, and aging Providence team, but scored only 2 points. Providence needed a body on the floor to play. Hartford embarrassed Holyoke 44-18. No one on the Holyoke squad could score more than 5 points. In the second round, Quincy received a scare with Bridgeport and won a close game 68-64 to advance to the finals for the third straight year. The key to Quincy's victory was that they made 22 out of 25 free throws, an amazing 88 percent accuracy. Revere playing in their first tournament, gave a good effort in losing to Hartford, 58-47. The key to Hartford's victory was free throws, they had made 16 free throws while Revere sank in only 7. Hartford once again advanced to the finals for the fifth time in seven years.

In the consolations, Bridgeport plastered Revere 93-65 to capture third place honors. David Biskupiak and Martin Jones scored 32 and 38 points for Bridgeport. Because both players caught fire, that helped Bridgeport win easily. Edward Pratt, Sr. was named the MVP of the 29th NEAAD tournament in helping a Cunningham-less Hartford club to their second straight championship.

30th Annual NEAAD Basketball Tournament

Revere edges Worcester 67-65 for their first NEAAD crown

Edited by John Moore

Hosted by the Quincy Deaf Club, the tournament was played at the North Quincy High School gym in North Quincy, Massachusetts on February 22 & 23, 1975. John S. Wall was the General Chairperson for this tournament. This marked 30 years of steady play by NEAAD ballclubs. Revere won their first championship, and represented a new club that was upstart, following the same pattern as the Quincy club. Revere had obtained John Tautkus from Hartford and he contributed 25 points. This was the key to Revere's 67-65 victory over Worcester as Tautkus made 7 free throws, Robert Shields, known for his speed and passing, sank in the final two free throws, giving Revere a two point margin for the victory.

In the first round, Holyoke handed Hartford their first loss since 1967 in NEAAD tournament play, 53-45. Due to a return to tournament format, that teams that lost in the first round could not compete for third and fourth places. Hartford was eliminated. In Game 2 Quincy crushed Providence 70-31. Quincy was led by Robert Kalis' 24 points and only Robert Smith could score in double figures for Providence. In the second round, Worcester defeated Holyoke 76-52. George Ferreira was the key player for Worcester with 22 points. Jackie Smith scored 27 points for Holyoke but could not help as the others could not contribute enough. The upstart Revere team eliminated Quincy, a local rival, 66-54 to advance to the finals for the first time.

In the consolations, Quincy eliminated Holyoke 71-62 to stake claim to third place. Robert Kalis scored 23 points for Quincy. George Ferreira was selected as the MVP for his outstanding play in leading Worcester to the finals. Four players on the Revere team hailed from Brockton, Massachusetts. John Tautkus, Robert Shields, John Meehan and Joseph Amell, all Brocktonians, contributed greatly towards Revere's NEAAD championship.

31st Annual NEAAD Basketball Tournament

Waterbury wins NEAAD crown 74-62 over Quincy after years of frustration

Edited by John Moore

The 31st annual NEAAD tournament was hosted by Worcester Deaf Club and played at Shrewsbury Senior High School gym. Chaired by Kenneth Thibault and the games were played on February 27 & 28, 1976. Nine teams signed up to play but two teams had to forfeit due to lack of players. Waterbury won their first NEAAD tournament, after many years of frustration over Quincy 74-62. Led by Dennis Berrigan and Kevin Ritchie who towered at 6 feet 7 inches with 28 points each, Waterbury was able to stall Quincy's scoring attack. Gerald Lentini originally from Indiana, coached Waterbury to victory.

The first game was forfeited as Portland could not send in enough players to play against Waterbury. It also marked the first time in NEAAD history that two games were forfeited, as the Holyoke squad did not show for their game with Worcester. Bridgeport gave Hartford their second straight NEAAD tournament elimination 68-43. Edward Pratt, Sr. helped Bridgeport with his 21 points. Quincy eliminated Providence 67-53 to advance to the second round. In the tournament format, Waterbury had to play four games, but luckily for Waterbury, the forfeit with Portland gave them enough rest to defeat defending Champion Revere 63-55 to advance to the second round.

In the second round, Quincy edged by Bridgeport 60-58 to advance to the finals once again. A well balanced Quincy team with good bench players prevented Bridgeport who had made 10 more free throws than Quincy from prevailing. Waterbury gladly handed Worcester their defeat, 54-49 to advance to the finals. In the consolation game, Bridgeport won a close game with Worcester 82-79 to claim stakes on third place. Worcester could not prevent Edward Pratt, Sr., past NEAAD MVP from scoring 36 points and that was the reason for Worcester's failure at victory. Also Paul Kaessler from New York's Union league team, a reknown AAAD player had decided to play for Bridgeport and that strengthen the team overall. Paul contributed good scoring and defensive play for the Bridgeporters. Paul was eventually elected to the AAAD Hall of Fame in 1992.

Dennis Berrigan was selected as the MVP for his outstanding play for Waterbury. He and Kevin Ritchie teamed up to power Bridgeport. Dennis was excellent with outside shots, while Kevin focused on inside shots.

NEAAD Basketball Tournament

Lentini leads Waterbury to second straight title over Worcester 101-64

Edited by John Moore

Hosted by Holyoke Athletic & Social Club for the Deaf on February 19 and 20 in 1977. Raymond L'Heureux, a former Holyoke player was the General Chairperson and the games were played at the John J. Lynch School. Waterbury, with a powerful squad was selected to play only one game, the championship game. Waterbury crushed Worcester 101-64 due to their team strength. Six players on the Waterbury squad had 10 or more points. This showed great teamwork, and Larry Kajen of Worcester could not be a "one man show" for Worcester with his 21 points. Gerald Lentini had recruited Patrick Berrigan from 1973 & 1974 AAAD champion Minnepaul (Minnesota) and John Samuels from 1975 AAAD champion Los Angeles. Patrick and John were well known AAAD players who had proven their basketball skills nationwide. Lentini also grabbed local stars in Robert Kalis (Quincy) and Jackie Smith to join the already powerful Waterbury team.

In the first round, Providence eliminated Holyoke 64-45 while Bridgeport eliminated Hartford, to their third consecutive elimination after winning 5 championships in NEAAD tournament play. The resulting score was 72-54. Quincy defeated Providence in a close game 57-54 to advance to the "finals" to meet with powerful Waterbury. Worcester walked throughout the game with Bridgeport to win 58-36. Worcester then ousted Quincy for the right to challenge Waterbury 64-44.

In the consolation rounds, Providence eliminated Bridgeport 50-44 to play against Quincy for possession of third place. Providence then tallied away 81 points to defeat Quincy who could only come up with 71 points. John Confreda came up with 34 points for Providence while Robert Shields and Bruce Goulette had 22 and 24 points respectively for Quincy. Quincy missed the presence of Robert Kalis who had often helped Quincy to their championship and multiple appearances in the finals.

Larry Kajen won MVP honors for his outstanding contribution in leading Worcester to the finals against mighty Waterbury. He averaged 21.3 points throughout the tournament. Waterbury had too many stars on the team, that no once could be considered as a MVP.

33rd Annual NEAAD Basketball Tournament

Providence ends 19 years of frustration with NEAAD title over Waterbury 78-50

Edited by John Moore

The Providence Club for the Deaf hosted the 33rd Annual NEAAD tournament at the Rhode Island School for the Deaf's gym on the dates of February 18 & 19 in 1978. Chaired by Gilbert Desmarais, a former star on the famed Providence team of the 1950's Providence was proud to have their local boys bring home the title. Providence was loaded with recent graduates from the Rhode Island School for the Deaf. William Lovick, Allen Bradley, Joaquim (Jack) Ferreira, Manuel Roderiques, Paul Tomasian, John Confreda and Edward Kilmaszewski all came from the powerful R.I.S.D. basketball squad who won championships against rival deaf schools. Joaquim (Jack) Ferreira was selected as an All-American for his play for R.I.S.D. They were too much for the defending champion Waterbury, and manhandled them with a 78-50 defeat. Joaquim (Jack) Ferreira led all scorers with 20 points and Robert Raiche, a veteran was close behind with 19 points for Providence.

In the first round, Quincy edged Bridgeport 48-46, Quincy overcame a halftime deficit of 26-23 to gain victory. Worcester eliminated Holyoke 75-57 thanks to Daniel Rinas' 35 points. Daniel formerly played for the Gallaudet University basketball squad. In the second round, Waterbury did away with Quincy 80-45. Dennis Berrigan and John Samuels contributed with 25 and 22 points respectively for Waterbury. Providence eliminated Worcester 66-52 from championship contention. Joaquim (Jack) Ferreira contributed 17 points to help Providence to advance to the finals against defending champion Waterbury.

In the consolation round, Worcester battled a hard fought game to edge Quincy 54-52. Quincy led 34-33 at the half but Worcester prevailed thanks to 21 points from Daniel Rinas. Robert Kalis was the high scorer for Quincy with 16 points. The difference was that Worcester made one more field goal than Quincy who had a perfect 4 for 4 from the line.

Robert Raiche was elected MVP for his outstanding and tricky plays on his opponents. He also helped a young squad win the championship and to continue the championship tradition from RISD. Waterbury played without towering Kevin Ritchie who had played for Union League in the AAAD's If Kevin remained on the Waterbury team, he would have given Waterbury a chance at their third straight title.

34th Annual NEAAD Basketball Tournament

Providence defeats Hartford 90-64 for second straight championship

Edited by John Moore

Hosted by Worcester Deaf Club, the 34th annual NEAAD tournament was played on February 24 and 25, 1979 at the Shrewsbury Senior High School gym in Shrewsbury, Massachusetts. John Philip was the chairman and made this event possible. Providence with their young and talented squad from the Rhode Island School for the Deaf whipped Hartford which was led by an "one man show" in Martin Jones who had scored 36 of his team's points. Providence had defeated Hartford by a 26 point margin with the score of 90-64. Joaquim (Jack) Ferreira led the Ocean Staters with 28 points.

Portland came back to the tournament after a few years of absence and failed to bring home a victory as they lost to Hartford 72-49. Martin Jones had 33 points for Hartford. Richard Gammon led the Maine hoopsters with 22 points. Providence survived a halftime scare losing to Revere 22-19, but scored 39 points in the second half to eliminate Revere. Joaquim (Jack) Ferreira led all scorers with 21 points for Providence. Worcester won against Quincy based on a forfeit. Quincy did not have enough players showing up to play. Holyoke eliminated Bridgeport 86-75 and five Holyoke players had points in double figures.

In the second round, Providence advanced to the finals once again by defeating an old-time rival, Worcester 86-68. Joaquim (Jack) Ferreira contributed 24 points for Providence while Daniel Rinas was a dead shot with 31 points for Worcester. Daniel Rinas, Paul Rinas and Robert Shepard contributed 66 out of Worcester's 68 points. Those three could not help if the rest of the Worcester team scored only 2 points. Hartford defeated Holyoke 74-58 to advance to the finals against Providence. Martin Jones sunk in 40 points for Hartford.

In the consolation game, Holyoke drubbed Worcester in a high scoring game, 110-89, giving both teams 199 points total. Daniel Rinas scored 39 points for Worcester, giving him 70 points for two games. The 199 two team mark, was the highest total for two teams in NEAAD history. David Biskupiak contributed 30 points for Holyoke. At halftime, it appeared as if the game was over as the score was 55-43 in Holyoke's favor.

Joaquim (Jack) Ferreira was selected as the NEAAD MVP for his outstanding play in helping lead Providence to their second straight championship and their tenth overall championship. Martin Jones of Hartford ended the tournament with 109 points and had sunk in 47 field goals in a mere three games, NEAAD tournament records. He averaged 36.3 points per game.

35th Annual NEAAD Basketball Tournament

Holyoke disappoints Revere's bid for a championship 83-68

Edited by John Moore

NEAAD took over the planning and running of the 35th annual NEAAD tournament one month before it was played on February 16 and 17, 1980. Since no one was interested in hosting the tournament, therefore NEAAD did so. It was successful thanks to the efforts of Roger Claussen and Thomas Orscher and the officers of the NEAAD who made it possible at the American School for the Deaf's gym. Holyoke was glad to bring home the championship after ruining Revere's hopes for their second championship in club history. Holyoke was led by Edward Powell and Daniel Biskupiak both guards, contributed 25 and 23 points respectively. Kevin Ritchie and Timothy Huebner stayed by the net amassing rebounds, and preventing an excellent Revere team from scoring more points. Martin Jones could only manage 24 points compared to his previous year's average of 36.3 points a game.

Holyoke embarrassed Portland 128-31, giving Holyoke a 97 point margin, the highest in NEAAD history. Holyoke led remarkably 73-9 at the half. Holyoke's 128 points in a single game broke the NEAAD overall tournament record of 112 points by Worcester in the championship game in 1951. Holyoke sunk in an amazing 60 field goals. No team has be so embarrassed like Portland since Fairfield lost to Worcester 112-33. Hartford then defeated Bridgeport in a far more reasonable game, 95-80 which gave fans something to cheer about. Three Hartford players, Richard Rose, Jr., Kevin Dardis and John Tautkus had contributed 71 points. Revere eliminated Quincy easily 66-21. Revere led 26-6 at the half, and did not allow Quincy to score any baskets in the first period. In the thriller of the tournament, Providence defeated Worcester in three overtimes, 73-65. The game was deadlocked 61-61 at end of regulation. After the first overtime, Worcester and Providence could not aim right as the score at the end of the first overtime was 61-61. After the second overtime ended, the score remained at 61-61. People were getting restless to see who was lucky enough to make a basket. Ironically in the third overtime, 16 points were scored and Providence scored 12 to seal the victory. Joaquim (Jack) Ferreira did not play for Providence as he had moved out of state.

In the second round, Holyoke had run out of baskets to aim at as they won 71-41 over Providence. Kevin Ritchie led the Holyoke squad with 20 points. Revere advanced to the finals with Holyoke by defeating Hartford 63-52. Martin Jones led the Revere club with 15 points while Kevin Dardis had 24 points for Hartford. In the consolation game, Providence upset at what had happened with Holyoke, scored 100 points against Hartford. Hartford scored 86 but needed 15 more to win. William Lovick, Jr. led the Ocean Staters with 28 points. Kevin Dardis and John Tautkus both had 22 points for Hartford. Hartford led 47-44 at the half but Providence answered with 56 second half points to win the game.

The MVP award was given to Timothy Huebner for his excellent defensive and rebounding play in holding Holyoke's opponents to lower scores. This helped Holyoke defensively and offensively as they were high scorers throughout the tournament.

36th Annual NEAAD Basketball Tournament

Waterbury buries Worcester 90-56 for NEAAD title

Edited by John Moore

Hosted by Portland's Lois Morin, the games were played at the University of Southern Maine in Portland on February 21 & 22, 1981. Six teams showed for Maine's first ever hosting of a NEAAD tournament. Waterbury, the team who had to drive the longest way to Portland came out victorious over Worcester 90-56. Quentin Amati, Jr. of Waterbury led all scorers with 27 points. Amati is the son of Quentin Amati, Sr., the well known player of Union League (New York) and the past NEAAD MVP in 1960 for Bridgeport. That halted Providence's dynasty at seven straight championships. This is the first father and son NEAAD MVP combination in history. Daniel Rinas Rinas and David Moninski both scored 15 points for Worcester.

Revere spoiled host Portland's bid for a victory, 52-45. Robert Kalis of Revere led all scorers with 21 points. Providence kicked Holyoke out of championship contention 53-45. Holyoke's 45 points was distant from the 128 points in the first round the year before. Worcester then eliminated Revere from championship contention 66-44. Waterbury defeated Providence to gain access to the finals with Worcester, 66-53. Quentin Amati, Jr. scored 27 points for Waterbury.

In the consolations, the fight for third place had began. Holyoke eliminated Portland from the tournament 66-51. David LaBare of Holyoke led all scorers with 20 points, while Richard Gammon had 17 points for Portland. Revere sent Providence home 52-48 to advance to the consolation finals. Robert Kalis scored 21 points for Revere. Holyoke lost a close game to Revere 64-62. In this game Edward Powell and David LaBare scored 29 and 22 points respectively for Holyoke but that was not enough as Revere won by one field goal.

37th Annual NEAAD Basketball Tournament

Hartford is back! Wins 72-44 over Providence for NEAAD title

Edited by John Moore

Louis A. Rivas was the General Chairman for the 37 th Annual NEAAD tournament hosted by the Revere Club of the Deaf, Inc. the games were played at the Saugus High School gym on February 27 & 28, 1982. Eight teams were involved, and Hartford was the eventual champion over Providence 72-44. Hartford was a powerful team and had all three Berrigan brothers, Patrick, Dennis and Terry. Mark Meyers was the high scorer for Hartford with 13 points on a well-balanced team. Hartford had five players over six feet and four inches tall. Their team was a strong team, and it was the first team from NEAAD to win the EAAD tournament.

This year was also the last year that NEAAD was under the EAAD's. It became separate and officially became the eighth representative to the AAAD tournaments.

In the first round, Hartford easily eliminated Portland from the tournament, 60-28. Worcester did away with Revere 51-34. Providence thrashed Quincy 74-39. Holyoke followed the example of the other teams, by demolishing Waterbury 72-46.

In the second round, Hartford defeated Worcester 56-44 to advance to the finals. Providence thrashed Holyoke 79-48 to meet with Hartford in the finals. Five players on the Providence team had figures in double digits while none on the Holyoke team had more than 8 points. In the consolation game, Worcester due to Eric Albro's 23 points gained victory over Holyoke 72-67. Holyoke was leading 37-34 at the half but the key to Worcester's victory was the fact that Worcester made 16 out of 25 free throws.

Daniel Biskupaik was selected as the MVP of the tournament for his stellar play for the Hartford ballclub.

38th Annual NEAAD Basketball Tournament

Hartford wins second straight NEAAD crown over Worcester

Edited by John Moore

Hosted by the Worcester Deaf Club, led by tournament chair, John Meehan, it was played at the Worcester State College gym in Worcester on March 12 & 13, 1983. This tournament marked the return of Thames Valley to the NEAAD's and the first ever appearance by a team from New Hampshire. Hartford flexed its muscles and proved them they were as powerful as the team that had won the EAAD tournament the previous year. They did so by squashing the local Worcester squad 78-50 to gain their eighth NEAAD championship. They were ranked only second to Providence's 10 championships. Hartford was coached by Gerald Lentini who had led his teams to four straight championships beginning with Holyoke in 1980 and Waterbury in 1981. He also won six championships in the past eight years the first two with the powerful Waterbury squad of 1976 and 1977. He was only interrupted by the upstart Providence team who won two championships in '78 and '79. Terry Berrigan totaled 19 points for the Hartford championship team.

In the first round of the tournament, Hartford defeated an excellent Providence team 66-61. It turned out that Providence was Hartford's only serious opponent on the path to their championship. Providence was led by William Lovick, Jr. and Robert DeCosta who contributed 20 and 17 points respectively. Hartford's highest scorer could only manage 16 points. Worcester eliminated a returning old-timer to the field, Thames Valley 63-44. Revere ousted Quincy thanks to Steve Nover's 14 points and the fact that Revere made 10 free throws compared to Quincy's 6 free throws. Holyoke gave newcomer New Hampshire a hard time, by scoring twice the points the opponent had scored, 75-37. New Hampshire was actually a two man show with two men scoring all except for 3 of the team's total points.

In the second round, Hartford eliminated Revere 67-50 and advanced to the finals. Worcester gave holyoke the idea of how the Granite Staters felt by thrashing them 67-42. Worcester had won the right to meet the NEAAD defending champions. Revere recovered from their defeat to Hartford to win third place honors over Holyoke 81-69. Terry Berrigan was elected as the MVP of the tournament for his playing honors in leading Hartford to the championship.

NEAAD's Independence From EAAD

NEAAD becomes the 8th region

By Thomas Desrosier - March 1995

At a meeting at the Providence Deaf Club in 1973, it was decided that it would be a good idea if New England had its own region in the American Athletic Association of the Deaf. We decided that it would be a good idea for us to separate from the Eastern region and go on our own. A resolution was passed that we would apply to the AAAD to become the 8 th region. We were very enthusiastic and excited about the resolution and brought our idea to the board of the AAAD at a meeting held in Colorado. The AAAD Board thought the idea was good, but said that the idea first had to be approved by the Eastern region. They said that after approval from the Eastern Region, we could re-apply to the AAAD.

In 1974, there were a meeting in New York and the Eastern region passed resolution to allow New England to become separate. Later that year Leo Burke, Roger Claussen, Joseph Marino, Edward Buell and I went to a meeting in Utah to represent us to the AAAD. The AAAD approved the application, but said that there would be a five year waiting period. During the five years, the NEAAD would have to do a lot of work to make by-laws, set up the organization, etc. So we went to work over the next five years to get everything set up so we could become officially the 8th region of AAAD.

During those five years, the Eastern region began to see its membership become less and less. They were worried that they would become too small and decided to change their mind about letting New England become independent. Even though there were doubts, we continued on the path to independence. We had workshops at the Holyoke Deaf Club and the Hartford Deaf Club. There was a lot of paperwork involved. Much credit is due to many people who work hard at established NEAAD. Debbie Buell Stone, Barbara Bailey Valli and Shirley Desrosier helped with all the typing and paperwork. There were a lot others who worked hard to get the organization started, but I'm sorry to say I forget some of the names.

At the 1982 AAAD meeting, AAAD President Richard E. Caswell expressed his concern about the Eastern region becoming too small. Nevertheless, President Alan Ander of the EAAD was still willing to go along with separating NEAAD and EAAD. At that time, I was called to speak before the AAAD board. I explained that we finished all the paperwork, the workshops, by-laws, etc. We had gone though all the work and we even had our own Hall of Fame. We had three sports commissioners; one for volleyball, basketball and softball. Some of the other regions had none or only one, but we had three! I also explained that the average number of people at our events was 400-500 registrants and that our tournaments were well run and enthusiastic.

Then the father of AAAD, Art Kruger, spoke up in support of the NEAAD. He said "New England was planning and working hard during the last five years, while others were sleeping." He said the New England should have its own region and that they should be congratulated for all their hard work. He told the board that if they weren't satisfied, they could try to change their minds later.

In 1982, the same year that we obtained final approval from AAAD, the Hartford Deaf was the first New England team to win Eastern regional championship. Hartford went on to represent us in Miami, Fla. So 1982 was a thrilling year for New England because it was our best team ever and it was the year we earned our independence. We were very proud and happy.

39th Annual NEAAD Basketball Tournament

Revere takes advantage of Holyoke's miscues, 60-56 to win NEAAD crown

NEAAD Bulletin, Summer 1984 - Edited by John Moore

The 39th annual NEAAD tournament was held in at the Holyoke High School gym as it was sponsored by the Holyoke Athletic and Social Club for the Deaf. Chaired by George E. Szpakpowski, it was held on the dates of March 3 and 4, 1984. Revere battled Holyoke all the way to the bitter end. The game was tied 56-56 with 52 seconds left. Revere took advantage of Holyoke's fouls and errors in the last seconds of the game to gain victory with a 60-56 score. The game was tied 24-all at halftime, and the lead scorer of the game was Peter Bailey of Holyoke with his 18 points. Charles Blundell, Jr. was selected as the MVP of the tournament for his stellar play during the tournament.

In the first round, Worcester capped a winner over Providence 44-42. Providence was actually leading 27-20 at the half. Holyoke advanced to the second round as Boston could not participate and had to forfeit the game. Hartford eliminated Quincy 73-65 despite 43 points from Alex Hoover and Ronald Harrison of Quincy.

In the second round, Revere eliminated Worcester as Revere was well rested due to the bye. The resulting score was 41-32. Holyoke won a thriller over Hartford 67-60 in overtime. Hartford was leading 33-19 at the half but Holyoke roared back to tie 58-58 to send the game to overtime. Holyoke valiantly defended Hartford to only 2 points in overtime to gain victory. In the consolation, Hartford devastated at their loss to Holyoke gained their revenge by defeating Worcester 64-55 for third place honors.

Charles Blundell, Jr. had gained the attention by winning the NEAAD MVP, and Paul Brooks gained the coach of the Tourney honors. The sportsmanship team was Hartford for their good and selfishness play during the tournament.

40th Annual NEAAD Basketball Tournament

Bridgeport defeats Revere to win NEAAD's 40th annual tournament

NEAAD Bulletin, Summer 1985 Edited by John Moore

Hosted by the Quincy Club for the Deaf, the tournament were played on the dates of February 22-24, 1985 at the North Quincy High School gym. Due to the well organized leadership of John S. Wall the chairman, and his associates, the tournament attracted 700 fans. Bridgeport had many stars on the team who were former NEAAD MVP's such as Terry Berrigan, Daniel Biskupiak, Quentin Amati, Jr. and Timothy Huebner. Bridgeport did not have a difficult time over Revere with Steve Nover and his die-hards. Bridgeport had a 19.5 point margin predicted by bettors and ended up with a 12 point victory in the 70-58 contest over Revere.

In the first round, Revere eliminated Hartford 61-44. Led by Richard Rose, Jr.'s 27 points, Holyoke thrashed Portland 70-46. Ronald Harrison had 17 points in leading Quincy on the way over a weak Worcester team, 67-29. Bridgeport eliminated Providence 63-45 to advance to the second round. Revere edged Holyoke 47-45 to advance to the finals. Holyoke was leading 26-22 at the half but succumbed to Revere's persistence for victory. Bridgeport eliminated Quincy 68-52. Bridgeport had more stellar players than a good Quincy team could handle. In the consolations, Quincy proved itself worthy, winning over Holyoke 90-83 for third place honors. In this game, Alex Hoover and Ronald Harrison of Quincy had 30 and 36 points respectively.

Daniel Biskupiak of Bridgeport was selected as the MVP of the NEAAD tournament. Bridgeport's Lee Curtis was hailed as the coach of the year. Revere for their respect and excellent play, earned the Team Sportsmanship award. This tournament went down nicely as two local teams, Revere and Quincy captured second and third place berths.

41st Annual NEAAD Basketball Tournament

Bridgeport clinches second straight NEAAD title over Providence 102-74

NEAAD Bulletin, Summer 1986 - Edited by John Moore

Providence was the proud host of the 1986 NEAAD tournament and their hopes for the championship was thrashed by Bridgeport's excellent play throughout the tournament. Seven teams all over New England competed at the Providence College gym on February 22 and 23. 666 people were registered in this tournament and they saw favored Bridgeport beat the locals, Providence 101-74 for the NEAAD championship. Bridgeport won the right to participate in the AAAD tournament with this victory. Robert Horridge, Jr. was the General Chairperson of the tournament, and his only disappointment was not seeing his beloved Providence team gain the championship.

This tournament marked several events, one being Marsha Wetzel who was the first female ever to participate in a NEAAD men's tournament. Wetzel was 1-1 from the line in Hartford's valiant effort to play well with Bridgeport. Prior to this tournament, people were talking about Thomas Desrosier's proposed closure towards the Greater Hartford of the Deaf for their misconduct during the 1985 NEAAD's and certain NEAAD travel reimbursement policies. This was dismissed on technical issues, and new people were elected as officers of the NEAAD, except for Nancy V. Becker who remained as Secretary-Treasurer for the 1986-87 term.

Bridgeport had an easy time over Hartford as four players on the Bridgeport team was in double figures. They gained victory by a score of 81-52. Providence sparked by the spirit of the home crowd, elimnated Holyoke, 72-42. The homecoming of Joaquim (Jack) Ferreira who once led the Providence team to two straight championships prior to his departure from Rhode Island helped the Ocean Staters with 23 points. Quincy waited and waited, and not enough Bostonians arrived for the tournament so they won over Boston on a forfeit.

Revere had received a bye and could not challenge a powerful Bridgeport team as they lost 78-41. Bridgeport had a strong starting trio as well as a strong bench, and Revere could know keep up with that. Providence roared to the finals overcoming Quincy 61-54 led by Joaquim (Jack) Ferreira's 24 points. This showed how much Providence had missed the chances for another championship during Joaquim (Jack) Ferreira's six year absence from Rhode Island. his talents helped an moderate Providence team to a good team capable of beating anyone except for Bridgeport. Alex Hoover of Quincy led the team with 23 points. Quincy battled with Revere to gain third place honors once again 90-89. Steve Nover of Revere struck oil and scored 28 points but his effort was wasted as Quincy edged out an one point victory.

Michael McNulty of Bridgeport was awarded the MVP for the tournament for his stellar playing leading Bridgeport to the championship. He saved his high scoring game, 24 points until the championship game against Providence. Providence's Joaquim (Jack) Ferreira led all scorers in the tournament with 36 points in the championship game, but unfortunately, the rest of Joaquim's teammates could not register in double figures to help the team. Joaquim (Jack) Ferreira had 83 points in 3 games compared to McNulty's 55 points, but the Bridgeport team had a well balanced attack, and that was the reason for Bridgeport's second straight NEAAD title.

42nd Annual NEAAD Basketball Tournament

Bridgeport upends Quincy for third straight NEAAD title 92-89

NEAAD Bulletin, by Dennis T. Palka - Edited by John Moore

Held by the Greater Bridgeport Association for the Deaf, 469 registered fans attend the tournament on the weekend of February 27, 28 and March 1. Chaired by Michael Reaume at the Cardinal Shehan Center in Bridgeport, Conn., seven teams participated. The local fans were glad to see their Bridgeport team bring back the NEAAD crown once again. Their third straight NEAAD title came at the expense of the Quincy team. Quincy had to play the game of their life to keep close with Bridgeport, and they came close, with a resulting score of 92-89. Bridgeport was led by tall players such as Steve Covington, Terry Berrigan and Timothy "Octopus" Huebner who led the team with rebounds. John Thomas and Daniel Sellick kept Bridgeport ahead in the game as they contributed 21 points each. Bridgeport's biggest headache was Quincy's Alex Hoover who scored 31 points.

For the fans who arose early to attend the 8:30 AM game between Providence and New Hampshire, they were treated with an overtime thriller. Both teams never led by more than 4 points in the entire game. At the half, Providence was leading 26-23, and the game was tied 53-53 at regulation. Yet the Providence team prevailed in overtime 58-57. The fans were treated with another excellent game as Hartford had edged Holyoke 59-57. Holyoke led 34-33 at the half, and it was a see-saw game due to great pressure to make shots. Both teams wasted many opportunities due to extreme pressure, and Steve Rusconi put Hartford ahead with a 25 foot shot with three seconds left. This was the game winning shot. Quincy eliminated their local rival, Boston 78-57, as Alex Hoover led Quincy with 21 points. Steve Nover could not help Boston with his 17 points.

Bridgeport who had received a bye, demolished Providence with a score of 78-37. Quincy whipped Hartford out of contention 55-45 as Alex Hoover and Ronald Harrison out-rebounded Hartford. In the consolations, Hartford eliminated Providence 83-73 as James Smith contributed 24 points for Hartford. Allen Bradley had 26 points for Providence, but it was not enough as Providence greatly missed Joaquim (Jack) Ferreira who was not able to show up for this tournament. With Ferreira, Providence would have been a more worthy opponent.

Daniel Sellick was given the MVP for his all-around prowess throughout the tournament. Patrick Berrigan the coach of the Champion Bridgeport team, was selected as the coach of the tournament. The sportsmanship trophy was awarded to the New Hampshire Association for the Deaf. Bridgeport in winning their third straight championship and their fifth overall, won their trip to the AAAD's in Las Vegas, Nevada.

43rd Annual NEAAD Basketball Tournament

Holyoke conquers NEAAD crown over Hartford 73-62

NEAAD Bulletin, by Dennis T. Palka - Edited by John Moore

In a tournament in which six teams registered, and two forfeited, Holyoke had a path in which they could attain the NEAAD crown. This tournament was held by the Greater Hartford Association for the Deaf and held at the East Middle School gym in East Hartford on Saturday March 5. Providence did not show for the tournament paving two forfeits in the opening rounds and in the consolation rounds due to the fact that only six teams signed up. It was the first time in 43 years that Providence did not play at a NEAAD tournament. Defending champion Bridgeport did not sign up for the tournament. Holyoke loaded with athletes from Gallaudet University who were recruited by Peter Bailey, gained victory over Hartford who had some players from the Bridgeport team of the year before. 345 registered fans witnesses Holyoke gain victory 73-62 with the help of Timothy Teeters and Shannon Simon. Holyoke led by 16 points at the half, and Hartford battled back to 9 points behind with 2 minutes left, alas it was not enough.

In the first round, Holyoke flexed its' muscles as they maimed New Hampshire by 61 points, 103-42. Richard Noble scored 25 points for Holyoke while Richard Gammon contributed 16 points for New Hampshire. Hartford advanced to the championship game due to a forfeit by the Providence team. Quincy who was seeded #1 received a bye and faced the Gallaudetian-loaded Holyoke team. The favored Quincy team was set back with a defeat from Holyoke 92-73. Hailed as an upset due to the fact that many of the Holyoke players were from out of state, and unknown to many. Holyoke's players hailed from Idaho, Wisconsin and other states as they were involved with athletics at Gallaudet. In the consolation round, New Hampshire showed up to face Providence, but it was a forfeit. So, New Hampshire went on to face Quincy who demolished them 73-34. Richard Gammon had 20 of New Hampshire's 34 points and Quincy had double figures from four players.

Peter Bailey was hailed as the youngest coach ever to win a NEAAD tournament and the coach of the tournament award. He led Holyoke from out of state to play for Holyoke, and eventually lead them to a NEAAD championship. Timothy Teeters, 6 Feet 8 inches tall, a local Holyoke player won the MVP in helping lead Holyoke to their championship. New Hampshire was awarded the Sportsmanship award. This tournament also was marked by the introduction of the 3 point shot, which can drastically wipe away a big lead by any team.

44th Annual NEAAD Basketball Tournament

Holyoke mashes Boston, 101-76 for second straight NEAAD crown

Edited by John Moore

Hosted by Quincy Deaf Club, Inc. in Quincy, Massachusetts and chaired by Kenneth Monahan on the weekend of March 3-5. The games were played at the North Quincy High School gym and five teams participated in the tournament. Holyoke who received the No. 1 seed received the bye. Holyoke loaded with stars from Quincy, Hartford, Bridgeport and elsewhere was too good for a good Boston team. Alex Hoover contributed 30 points for Holyoke in leading them to their championship. Timothy "Octopus" Huebner, Daryl Wetzel, Ronald Harrison and Bruce Bucci played on this excellent team other than Alex Hoover the eventual NEAAD Most Valuable Player. Matthew Samuel led the Boston team with 19 points.

In the first round, Quincy elimnated Providence 76-45. Boston ousted Worcester from contention 89-67. Matthew Samuel had 19 points for Boston and four other players scored in double figures for Boston. In the second round, Holyoke again prevailed over a good Quincy team 76-68 as Daryl Wetzel sparked Holyoke's offense with 19 points. Mario Mauro contributed to the Quincy ballclub with 21 points. Boston defeated Hartford 85-74 to advance to the finals. Matthew Samuel had 23 points for the Beantowners. Steven Rusconi had 26 points for Hartford.

In the consolation round, Quincy edged Hartford 68-64 to gain third place for the second straight year and the fourth time in five years. Mario Mauro led the Quincy ballclub with 21 points and because Quincy made in 25 field goals and one three pointer, and that was just enough to edge Hartford.

45th Annual NEAAD Basketball Tournament

Worcester (B) brings NEAAD crown home over Holyoke 79-72

Edited by John Moore

Steven Hargreaves successfully attracted 9 teams to Providence where the games were played at the Rhode Island School for the Deaf's gym. Played on the dates of March 2 and 3, Bridgeport received the bye and eight teams fought to advance in the first round. A loss meant automatic elimination in the first round. A new team from Mystic, Connecticut joined in , and Bridgeport was back. Worcester sent in two teams. Worcester-B defeated former champion Holyoke who again were loaded with excellent athletics from Gallaudet University. Richard Ballard, Holyoke's coach did not have that same taste of success as Peter Bailey did when he coached for Holyoke. Thomas Popowski scored 30 points for Worcester-B and was declared the MVP of the NEAAD tournament in leading Worcester-B to a 79-72 victory.

In the first round, four teams faced automatic elimination, Hartford sent Quincy home packing with a 83-68 defeat Steven Rusconi scored 27 points for Hartford. In Game 2, Providence gave young Mystic an early exit, 104-65. Alex Hoover scored 30 points for Providence while Joaquim (Jack) Ferreira scored 10 points in his return to Providence. Worcester-B flexed its muscles as they defeated Boston 120-56. Thomas Popowski scored 33 points for Worcester-B. Holyoke equalled Worcester-B's point output over Worcester-A 120-33, 87 point margin. Joey Manson, a Gallaudet student scored 28 points for Holyoke. Bridgeport faced Hartford in the bye round and eliminated Hartford 104-72, and this being the fourth straight game with 100 points scored by a team. Michael McNulty and Daniel Sellick scored 22 and 21 points respectively for Bridgeport.

In the second round, Worcester-B almost scored 100 points for the second straight game, but won 95-79 over Providence. Michael Avona and Thomas Popowski had 30 and 24 points for Worcester-B while Ronald Harrison had 32 points for Providence. With this victory, Worcester-B advanced to the finals. Holyoke defeated Bridgeport 90-72 to advance to the finals against Worcester-B. Rocky Murray had 28 points and his friend and teammate Thomas Luttrel had 22 points for Holyoke. Murray and Luttrel both attended the Indiana School for the Deaf and were students at Gallaudet. In the consolation game, Providence defeated Bridgeport in a high-scoring thriller in overtime, 103-101. The game was tied at end of regulation 97-97, and won in overtime Ronald Harrison and Alex Hoover led Providence with 25 and 24 points while Michael McNulty had 27 points for Bridgeport.

Thomas Popowski was declared the MVP for the tournament due to his high scoring efforts in leading Worcester-B over a loaded Holyoke team.

46th Annual NEAAD Basketball Tournament

Boston blocks Bucci's Ocean Staters from attaining championship, 100-76

Bucci averages 40.3 points a game!

Edited by John Moore

Alma Bournazian was the Chair of the tournament and it was held at the Arlington High School gym in Arlington, Massachusetts on March 1 & 2. Seven teams participated in the mens' tournament and it was also the first year that women had a tournament of their own. Boston Deaf Club was the host and they were glad to see their beloved team win the championship. Holyoke a perennial team for the past 4 years did not participate. Boston prevented Bruce Bucci who was a raging inferno sinking every shot in sight, attaining 40 points per game, Bucci was limited to 31 points in his attempt to lead Providence to their 11 th championship. Boston was loaded with the likes of Alex Hoover, Ronald Harrison, Matthew Samuel and Calvin Gousby. Samuel, Hoover and Gousby scored 20 points or more for Boston. Boston scored 100 points against Providence, and that was more than enough to allow Providence score 76 points.

In the first round, Quincy eliminated a new team CAADA 60-36. Edward Pratt, Sr. scored 21 points for CAADA. Worcester eliminated Bridgeport 79-73 due to the fact that Worcester sank in 6 three pointers. Nathan Moulden had 30 points for Worcester. Providence eliminated Hartford 90-41. Bruce Bucci had 42 points for Providence, one more than the entire Hartford ballclub!

Boston who had received the bye due to their strength, defeated 112-54. Alex Hoover nearly matched Bruce Bucci's earlier efforts with 41 points for Boston. Ronald Koehler of Quincy, had the highest score with 16 points. In the fifth game, Providence beat Worcester 92 to 77. Again Bucci had the highest score of 48 points which tied him with Edward Dawson's old record in 1968. Allen Bradley contributed 20 points to help Providence team win the game. Nathan Moulden contributed 24 points for the Worcester team!

The consolation game between Quincy and Worcester was filled excitement! During half time Quincy was leading by 21 points. In the last quarter the Worcester team started to catch up with Quincy but unfortunately they lost to by one point, putting them in fourth place. Ronald Koehler made 19 points for the Quincy team and Nathan Moulden made 18 points for the Worcester team.

In the Championship game Boston blew away Providence by 100 to 76. Boston's players Calvin Gousby, Alex Hoover and Matthew Samuel all contributed an average of 20 points. Even though Bruce Bucci worked hard by contributing 31 points for his team, they still lost to Boston. Bruce has set a new NEAAD record of 121 points breaking Martin Jones' long standing record of 109 points that was established in 1979. Bruce Bucci scored 50 field goals beating Martin Jones' 47.

Worcester now has a new record of consecutive three point throws for all three games.

47th Annual NEAAD Basketball Tournament

Boston wins NEAAD title again! 104-80 over Providence

Edited by John Moore

Hosted by the Greater Bridgeport Association for the Deaf, the tournament was played on the dates of February 29 and March 1st. Six teams participated and Boston and Providence received byes for their placements in the previous year's tournament. Edward Buell, a NEAAD veteran since 1946, was the chair of this event. Boston walked away with their second straight championship, again scoring 100 points over Providence. The final score was 104-80, and Providence's Bruce Bucci who had a hot streak the previous year's tournament was held to just 14 points. Calvin Gousby had a hot hand with the 3 point shot, sinking in 4 and contributed 22 points for Boston. Gregory Garnetto had 28 points for Providence ensuring MVP honors for himself.

In the first round, Worcester eliminated Hartford 86-68, and Nathan Moulden was the high scorer for Worcester. Steve Rusconi was the high scorer for Hartford with 25 points. Bridgeport thrashed CAADA 101-64. Quentin Amati, Jr. keeping the basketball tradition of the past 40 years in the family, scored 22 points. In the second round, a well rested and powerful Boston mauled Worcester into the consolations, 104-69. Calvin Gousby of Boston and Nathan Moulden of Worcester both had 27 points. But Alex Hoover had 29 points for Boston. Providence ousted Bridgeport 96-73. Bruce Bucci was the lead scorer for Providence with 27 points due to his six 3 pointers a record in a single game, and Timothy "Octopus" Huebner led the way with 20 points for Bridgeport. In the consolation round, Bridgeport defeated Worcester for third place honors, 100-71. Quentin Amati, Jr. scored 27 points for Bridgeport.

Boston scored 208 points in two games, and had averaged 100 or more points per game for the last two years. Calvin Gousby had sunk in 9 three pointers in two games, a new record. Gregory Garnetto had outstanding play in his first year, averaging 26 points in two games for Providence. For the second straight year Providence's attempt at a championship was foiled by Boston.

48th Annual NEAAD Basketball Tournament

CAADA-B wins first NEAAD championship 102-87 over Providence

Edited by John Moore

Hosted by the Greater Hartford Club of the Deaf, and chaired by James Craig, it was played on the dates of March 5-7. Five teams played in the tournament at the East Hartford High School gym, and CAADA-B came out victorious. The reason CAADA-B was victorious as they had experienced playing against excellent teams in the AAAD such as Chicago, MWAD and others. David Rhodes of CAADA-B scored 23 points in his all around play giving him MVP honors for the tournament. He was the first NEAAD player to be selected to the All-Star team in the AAAD's. The result was a 102-87 score over Providence who had increased strength due to the collapse of the Boston team and many defected to Providence. CAADA-B with its experience and talent was too much for Providence who had accepted runner-up honors for for three straight years. Providence, the "dark horse" scampered to a 70-70 tie with 8 minutes left, but CAADA-B blew them away in the remaining minutes.

In the first round, CAADA-A celebrated their first victory in three years over Worcester 92-68. Providence was led by several hot shooters in Alex Hoover and Gerald Joseph who had contributed 31 and 22 points respectively in the 120-79 victory over Hartford. CAADA-B who received the bye, defeated CAADA-A 97-28 to advance to the finals. David Rhodes led CAADA-B with 24 points. In the consolations, Hartford eliminated Worcester 60-36. Hartford advanced to the consolation finals to defeat CAADA-A 60-51. James Smith had 27 points for Hartford.

49th Annual NEAAD Basketball Tournament

NESBD defeats CAADA for NEAAD title, 103-90

David Rhodes scores 55 points in a game!

Edited by John Moore

Hosted by CAADA (Connecticut African-American Deaf Advocate) at the Rogers Park Junior High school in Danbury, CT. Held on the dates of March 4-6, six teams participated in this event chaired by Paul Ditimi. New England Society Black of the Deaf (NESBD) clinched the championship over CAADA 103-90. Gerald Joseph and Alex Hoover had 34 and 27 points respectively for NESBD and David Rhodes had 42 points in a remarkable tournament for CAADA. Unfortunately Rhodes could not handle the quickness and skills of the NESBD by himself.

Greater Burlington Club for the Deaf (Vermont) marked the first ever appearance by a Vermont team in the NEAAD's. It took 49 years for teams fielded in all New England states to participate in the tournament. Their first appearance resulted in a narrow victory over Worcester 85-83. Michael Carter contributed 20 points and made 8 out of 9 free throws in leading Burlington to victory. In Game 2, David Rhodes placed his name on the NEAAD history books by scoring 55 points in a single game against Hartford. Rhodes scored 55 of his team's 96 points in leading them to a 96-76 victory over Hartford. As NESBD received the bye, they played a tough game against Burlington (VT) and won 116-105. Michael Carter of Burlington was fouled out with 5:22 remaining, and this helped NESBD edge out Burlington. The game was close 105-102 with 1:21 remaining, but NESBD pulled away to win this game. Both teams set a record for most points in a game with 221 points, and Michael Carter and Tim Hughes contributed 29 and 24 points for their beloved Vermonters. Alex Hoover and Calvin Gousby had 30 a piece in the game, and Hoover scored his 500th career NEAAD point in the game after 14:30 of play in this game. CAADA upset Providence 99-88 thanks to David Rhodes's 36 points. Providence was a good ballclub with Gerald Garnetto and Nicholas Testone III. In the consolations, Providence defeated Burlington 82-71 for third place honors.

Several records were broken in this tournament. NESBD had eight three pointers in the championship game. Ten three pointers were sunk by both teams in the championship game. David Rhodes of CAADA had 55 points in the first game, scored 133 points in three games for a 44.9 average, and sunk in 55 field goals, breaking Bruce Bucci's record of 50 field goals and 121 points in 1991. Rhodes broke Edward Dawson (1968) and Bruce Bucci's (1991) record of 48 points.

50th Annual NEAAD Basketball Tournament

CAADA defeats Holyoke 92-85 for second championship in 3 years

Edited by John Moore

Hosted by NEAAD and chaired by Louis Rivas, this tournament was a success as as ten teams participated in it from five New England states with the exception of New Hampshire. Held on March 10-12 in Framingham, Massachusetts at the Joseph P. Keefe Technical High School gym. Approximately 1,000 fans attended this event. CAADA defeated Holyoke 92-85 but three records were broken. James Segala made 7 three pointers for Holyoke, and Holyoke as a team had 10 three pointers. Both teams had a total of 14 three pointers. David Rhodes led CAADA with 41 points while James Segala had 32 for Holyoke.

In the first round, Worcester (RED) defeated Pittsfield in Pitt's first appearance, 95-32. Pittsfield was held to .179 FG percentage. Aging veteran Gordon Bergan of age 50 led Worcester (R) with 16 points. Portland defeated Haverhill (the team closet to New Hampshire) 62-53 to advance Derek Sudbay had 24 points and 15 rebounds for Haverhill. Burlington (VT) defeated Worcester (WHITE) 99-72. Kevin Eoll led the Vermonters with 32 points. Dwayne Riggins led the Worcester (W) with 23 points. Providence defeated Hartford 73-58, as Joaquim (Jack) Ferreira contributed 21 points to Providence. Carlos Hernandez had 24 points for Hartford. CAADA ousted Portland 74-45. Portland battled in the first half to have a 31-30 deficit but ran out of gas to lose. David Rhodes had only 10 points for CAADA. Holyoke defeated Worcester (R) to advance 88-66. Matthew Samuel had 28 points for Holyoke.

In the most exciting game of the tournament, CAADA barely defeated Burlington (VT) in overtime 84-82. The fans looked on with excitement as Kevin Eoll of Burlington had the ball with a few seconds remaining at the end of regulation. The score was tied 71-71, and Eoll let go of the ball as the buzzer sounded. The ball soared towards the hoop and struck the rim and bounced out. The CAADa players breathed in relief and pulled out a harrowing victory over Burlington. This game technically was the championship game. David Rhodes of CAADA had 24 points while Gerald Joseph of Burlington had 28 points. Holyoke defeated Providence 95-66 to advance to the finals. James Segala of Holyoke led all scorers with 20 points. In the consolations, Burlington thrashed Providence badly 124-79. Compared to the game Holyoke had with Providence, Burlington was the better team. Gerald Joseph had 41 points for Burlington while John Confreda had 23 points for Providence.

Burlington scored 305 points in 3 games, a new NEAAD record. Burlington also broke another record, 18 three pointers during the tournament. David Rhodes won their third straight MVP, in leading CAADA to two championships in three years. Burlington's 51 field goals made on one game tied Holyoke's record in 1979.

HALL OF FAME

NEAAD HALL OF FAMERS IN 25 PAST YEARS

(Players, Coaches & Leaders)

1970-1995

Edited by John Moore
Contributed by John Monahan

Established in 1970 at the 25th NEAAD Tournament, the NEAAD Hall of Fame honors the players, coaches and leaders who have contributed greatly to the NEAAD.

Selections have been made annually, honoring these who have deserved their recognition for their wonderful athletic, leadership and their coaching abilities since NEAAD is founding in 1946. Since then, dozens of people have joined the ranks of the NEAAD Hall of Fame.

The process of selection is done by asking each club for the deaf to select up to six people they thought worthy to become a part of the NEAAD Hall of Fame. The clubs were not permitted to vote for their members. Persons recurring the highest votes were awarded admittance into the NEAAD Hall of Fame.

The first Hall of Fame Committee was cheered by Leo Burke and assisted by John Philip and Allan Bailey.

George Trudeau

Inducted 1970 A playing honor

TEAM:
Lynn, Holyoke, Worcester & Hartford

36 YEARS PLAYED:
1947-1990 (1974 in EAAD)

CHAMPION TEAMS:
Lynn - 1947
Worcester - 1949-52, 1966-67

When George first reported to the practice session of the Lynn Deaf of Lynn, Mass in 1947, the coach and the players doubted that George would make the team due to his small size and shortened left arm. Due to his determination, he made the team and led it to the 2nd. annual NEAAD championship. This gave the Lynn team the right to represent New England in the EAAD tourney.

There, he played brilliantly, leading the Lynn team to the finals against a powerful Buffalo, N.Y. team coached by Alfred Hoffmeister. George had to leave the third quarter due to a head injury, and Buffalo won the EAAD Championship.

The following year, the Lynn team folded, George went on to join the Holyoke team 1948, then on to Worcester team in 1949. He led the Worcester team to four championships and remained on the Worcester team for the rest of his playing career except for one year on the Hartford team. He won the MVP in 1950, and was on the All-Star team several times.

George's best memory of his career was the game he played against Waterbury in 1954, Waterbury hosted the tournament, and the game see-sawed back and forth between Waterbury and Worcester. The final score was 49-48, and due to some confusion it was not sure who actually won the game. Both teams waited and waited until the announcer finally declared Worcester the victors.

While growing up, George attended the Worcester Upsala school at the age of 7. After five years at this school, George spent one year at the Clarke School for the Deaf for a year. He never went back to school again.

George was highly regarded by players on his team as well as on opposing teams. People were mainly impressed by his shooting ability which resulted in high scores despite his height and short left arm.

George was actively involved in other sports such as swimming, diving, bowling and tumbling. He won the gold in diving during the World Games for the Deaf in Milan, Italy in 1953. He came in seventh during the diving competition during the Games in Washington, D.C. in 1957 when his age began to show. He was hailed as a tough competitor and he never gave up. A sign of this determination is that he finally hung up his basketball sneakers at the age of 66 in 1990.

Edward A. Sedoma

Inducted 1970 A playing honor

TEAM:
Providence

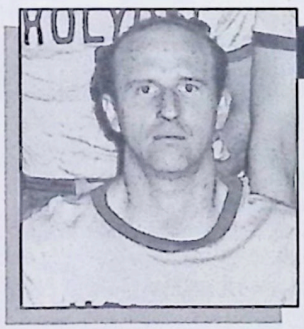
18 YEARS PLAYED:
1950-1969

CHAMPIOM TEAMS:
Providence seven consecutive years championships

Edward attended the Rhode Island School for the Deaf and left the school in 1949. Weighing at 220 pounds and being 5 ft. 9 in. tall, he was hailed as one of the top scorers in NEAAD history. He held the tournament record of 45 points set in 1957 for 11 years until Edward Dawson broke it in 1968. Edward's 15 free throws in a single game in 1956 has been a toumament record for 29 years and yet has to been broken.

On his Providence team which reeled off seven straight NEAAD championships, several Hall of Famers played with him. Those players on the Providence team were Gilbert Desmarais, Anthony Lomastro, Robert Smith, Francis Corrigan and Edmund Michaud.

Edward had a passion for being a dead shot, by outwitting other players with his outstanding performance. Selected to the All-Star team ten times, and voted the NEAAD MVP four times, he retired in 1969 to become the coach of the Providence team. His qualities was not limited only to playing and coaching, he was elected as Vice-President of the NEAAD as well as a recorder and the Hall of Fame committee Chairperson.



Walter S. Bajorek

Inducted 1970 A playing honor

TEAM:
Holyoke

17 YEARS PLAYED:
1946-1965

RECORDS:
Three times in Finals

Walter was an outstanding athlete at the American School for the Deaf before he started to play basketball for the Holyoke Club. He showed his loyalty for Holyoke by playing for them for 17 years. Being 6 ft. 4 in. tall, he was one of the best rebounders in New England as well as one of the high scorers. He was chosen to be on the All-Star team four times.

His greatest disappointment was never bringing a championship to Holyoke, and his team did make to the finals three times. He was one of the original players of the 1946 tournament, and the first from this era to be elected to the NEAAD Hall of Fame.

Robert J. Smith

Inducted 1970 A playing honor

TEAM:
Providence & Bridgeport

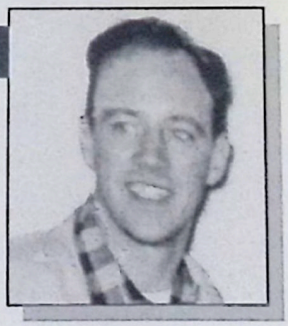
26 YEARS PLAYED:
1952-1980

CHAMPION TEAMS:
Providence seven consecutive years championship

Being 6 ft. 2 in. tall and weighing at 220 pounds, Smith was considered as a big player. One of the best rebounders in the NEAAD, he was a fiery and tough competitor. He always played to win, even though his team was doomed to defeat. His selection to the All-Star team six times and his NEAAD MVP in 1955 was a verification of his playing talents.

Smith played his entire career at Providence except for a year at Bridgeport. He ended his 26 year playing career at Providence in 1980. He pursed his love for basketball with his teammates at Providence. He was well liked and respected by the players and members of the Providence Deaf Club.

George Finn, Jr.



Inducted 1970 A playing honor

TEAM:
Boston

9 YEARS PLAYED:
1947-1963

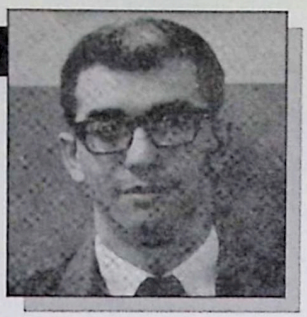
CHAMPION TEAM:
Boston 1961

One of the more unheralded players in the NEAAD, he was a player that played steadily. He was an all-around player, and a dead shot from the floor as well as an excellent rebounder. He played on the Boston team between the years of 1947-1963.

During the 1958 tournament game against the heavily favored Worcester team, boston, trailing by one point with 17 ticks left on the clock, emerged as victors when George put in a hook shot. This gave boston the right to compete in the finals. People vividly remember George's shot that upset the Worcester team.

After he retied as a player, he took over as the coach of the Boston team for three years. He was selected to four All-Star teams.

Edmund A. Nazzaro



Inducted 1970 A playing honor

TEAM:
Fairfield, Bridgeport & Holyoke

17 YEARS PLAYED:
1952-1973

CHAMPION TEAM:
Bridgeport 1970

Edmund was honored for his long list of achievements in sports. Noted for his fine character and sportsmanship, he was a team player who thought well of other players.

Nazzaro kept active in club activities by becoming an Athletic Director of the Bridgeport Club. He played on the Bridgeport team for eleven years, and was selected to the All-Star team three times.

He was well-liked by his fellow players, and was involved with all sports, attempting to excel in everything he undertook. He now resides in Connecticut, as a married man with two children.

Abram Cohen

Inducted 1970 A coaching honor

TEAM:
Providence

6 YEARS COACHED:
1948, 1950, 1955-56 & 1958

CHAMPION TEAMS:
Providence - six championships

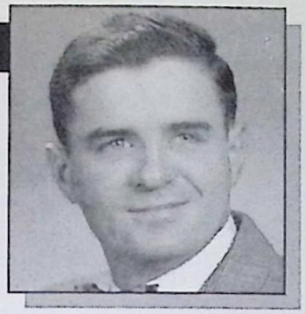
RECORDS:
17 wins and 1 loss in his coaching career

During his ten years on the Providence team, he led them to six championships in the NEAAD tournaments. A graduate of the Mt. Airy School for the Deaf in Pennsylvania, he has been an instructor of woodworking at the Rhode Island School for the Deaf for more than 42 years.

For a number of years, he has coached football, baseball and basketball at the Rhode Island School. He also served as Vice-President of the NEAAD in 1949. He was elected as NEAAD President in 1950.

He was a quiet and humble man, his ability as a coach has been made evident by his teams' successes.

Edward S. Buell



Inducted 1970 A Leader

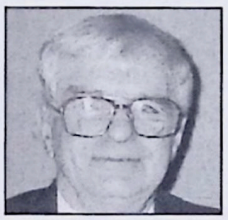
Appeared At NEAAD Meeting:
50 straight years

15 YEARS OF LEADERSHIP:
1946-1972

Buell attended the Mystic Oral School for the Deaf (1929-35) prior to attending the American School for the Deaf (1935-42). resident of Milford, CT., Buell is known as the father of the NEAAD. Aided by four founders, Abram Cohen of Providence, Harry Spring of Hartford, Stanley Hosta of Holyoke, Joseph Marino of Hartford and helped by David Thomas of Boston, he founded the NEAAD during the pioneering years. He has never missed a NEAAD basketball meeting.

Ed has been the NEAAD President nine times, as well as the Vice-President six times and twice as Secretary-Treasurer. He has been the NEAAD basketball tournament chairman three times as the NEAAD softball tournament chairman twice.

The NEAAD recognized him in 1970 by inducting him to the Hall of Fame for his outstanding leadership.



Ernest R. Ovitt

Inducted 1971 A playing honor

TEAM:
Lawrence, Lynn, Holyoke and Worcester

14 YEARS PLAYED:
1946-1964

CHAMPION TEAMS:
Lawrence 1946, Lynn 1947 & Worcester (1949-52) - 4 times

Ernest attended the Clarke School for the Deaf in Northampton. After he finished school, he helped guide Lawrence, Lynn and Worcester to the NEAAD championship in the first five years of NEAAD's existence. He pulled in George Trudeau to the Lynn team in 1947, and together they won several NEAAD championships. Ovitt had won championships in six out of seven years with the three teams he played for, only missing out in 1948 when Providence won the championship. This is a feat few players have attained, with three different clubs.

He played in several EAAD tournaments. He captured the MVP award in 1951 and 1952 when he led Worcester to the NEAAD championship. His Worcester club defeated the heavily favored N.J. team with only four players ending the game. He played against the Golden Tornadoes of New York, and lost 85-81.

Ovitt often remained with Trudeau for most of his playing years until a knee injury forced him to retire in 1964, 26 years before Trudeau would finally retire. He was an outstanding rebounder and had an array of passing tricks. Ernest was often underrated due to the shadow of several outstanding players. But due to his dependably, his teams won 6 championships in his first seven years of play.

John L. Philip

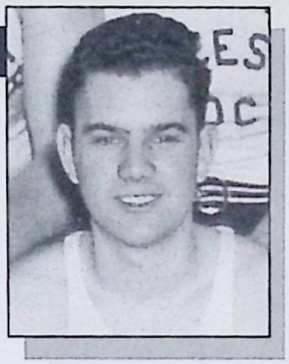
Inducted: A playing honor - 1972,
A leader - 1978
A coaching honor 1984

TEAMS:
Worcester, Holyoke & Hartford

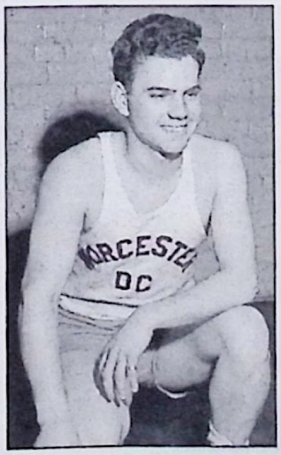
14 YEARS PLAYED:
1949-1963

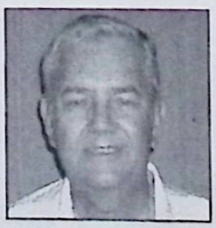
13 YEARS COACHED:
1957, 1962, 1965, 1967-71,1971, 1973, 1980-81, 1984-85 & 1990

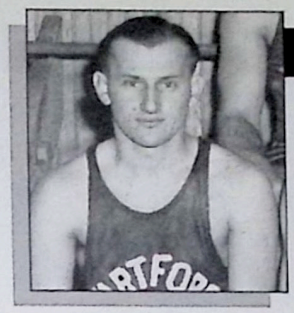
CHAMPION TEAMS:
Worcester (1949-52) - 4 times



John had made an remarkable achievement, capturing Hall of Fame honors in playing, coaching and leadership. He attended the Clarke School for the Deaf and joined the Worcester ballclub in 1948. In his first year of play, he helped the Worcester ballclub overcome favored Providence to win the championship. John was an assister rather than a shooter. He played excellent defense enabling his teammates to feel confident and in control throughout the game. During a Worcester Deaf Club practice, he fractured his elbow which forced him to retire early. His heart was in sports so he became a coach. With his very supportive wife Doris' approval, he coached several Worcester teams in the NEAAD's before retiring as a coach in 1992 when he coached the Worcester women's team. He participated in many NEAAD events, making him as a leader in the NEAAD. He is in the Hall of Fame with his fellow teammates, Ovitt, Monahan, Trudeau, Winters and Donald Tucker.







Charles Shimkus

Inducted 1973 A playing honor

TEAM:
Hartford

10 YEARS PLAYED:
1946-1956

RECORDS:
Not Available

Charles graduated from the American School for the Deaf, West Hartford, Conn. Charles played for 10 years with the Hartford gridders as a guard a short man who was sly as a rat on the court, and was a steady shooter. He averaged 7.4 points per game, totaling 177 points in his 10 year career. He worked for many years for American School for the Deaf. He resides in Florida.

Joseph R. Ferrone

Inducted 1973 A playing honor

TEAM:
Bridgeport

7 YEARS PLAYED:
1946-1953

RECORDS:
Not Available

Joseph played for Deaf basketball leagues in the early years of the 1940's before NEAAD was established. He played for Bridgeport Club for seven years. He was unable to win a championship with them due to the powerhouses of Worcester and Providence in the early years of the NEAAD.

He was the President of NEAAD from 1960 to 1961. He also was outstanding in other athletic pursuits. He was the President of Bridgeport Club for the Deaf for a few years in the 1970's.

Anthony N. Lomastro, Sr.

Inducted 1974 A playing honor

TEAM:
Providence

20 YEARS PLAYED:
1950-1970

CHAMPION TEAMS:
Seven consecutive championships with Providence

Anthony attended the Rhode Island School for the Deaf then embarked on a 20 year playing career for the Providence Deaf Club's basketball team. Playing as a guard, he helped Edward Sedoma and Robert Smith in leading Providence to sever straight NEAAD titles in the 1950's. He was known as a dutch shooter. He was also one of the best defensive stars with his rebounding skills.

He was often overlooked due to other stars on the Providence team. But he had wonderful sportsmanship. He coached Providence a few times after he retired.

Henry Brenner

Inducted 1975 A playing honor

TEAM:
Providence

7 YEARS PLAYED:
1949-1956

CHAMPION TEAM:
Providence (1953-56) - 4 times

Harry was an outstanding athlete for the Rhode Island School for the Deaf, and attended the University of Rhode Island where he was an stellar tackle on the football team. He was once named a small college All-American for his wonderful athleticism for for the University of Rhode Island.

He played for seven years for the Providence basketball team, helping other stars such as Edward Sedoma, Robert Smith and Anthony Lomastro to several NEAAD championships before he departed from Rhode Island to undertake a coaching and teaching job at the North Dakota School for the Deaf. At NDSD, he was a great football coach, winning honors in Deaf America.

He obtained the MVP award in the 1949 tournament and was named as an All-Star in the NEAAD's three times. He was an unselfish player which helped other stars on the PCD team get scoring honors and recognization. He will be best remembered for his athletic exploits that put Rhode Island on the map in Deaf America.

Oscar W. Shirley

Inducted
A coaching honor - 1975
A playing honor - 1990

TEAM:
Hartford and Waterbury

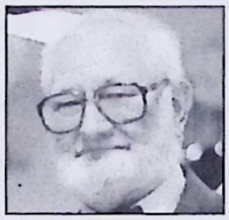
5 YEARS PLAYED:
1953-1960

6 YEARS COACHED:
1965-66, 76-78 & 89

Oscar originated from South Carolina where he attended the South Carolina School for the Deaf and Spartanburg High. He was an athletic participant in basketball, football and baseball. He attended Gallaudet College and graduated in 1952. He was the hot scorer in the D.C. area and averaged 26 points on his first year on the Gallaudet squad.

He helped found the Southeastern Athletic Association for the Deaf in 1947, and is one of the leaders in deaf athleticism. He coached at the American School for the Deaf in West Hartford, Connecticut, and was named coach of the year twice for football and three times in basketball in 1952-66. He shot hoops for the Hartford basketball team and coached during the 60's and 70's for Hartford.

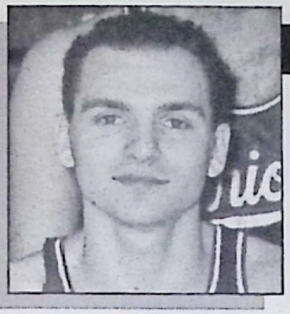
His leadership led him into the Hall of Fame for three different regions, NEAAD, SEEAD and AAAD.



Arthur H. Enger

Inducted 1975
A Leader

Arthur was honored for his leadership ability for the NEAAD. He worked unselfishly with many NEAAD leaders and players to improve NEAAD. He attended many EAAD meetings fighting for NEAAD eventually for its' separation from the EAAD to become the 8th region of the AAAD. He was responsible for bringing the Providence basketball team to the ranks of fame for their dynasty in the 1950's. Arthur loved working for the Deaf and his heart remained with the NEAAD until his death.



Sheldon Freedman

Inducted A playing honor - 1976

TEAM:
Sporal, Worcester, Boston & Patroits

12 YEARS PLAYED:
1952-1964 (AAAD 1966 in Boston)

CHAMPION TEAMS:
Boston 1961 &
Patroits 1963-64 - 2 times

Sheldon played basketball and track for the Horace Mann School for the Deaf and Chelsa High school. He played on four different teams in the NEAAD tournaments, including the likes of Sporal, Worcester, Boston and Patroits. He played under seven coaches and three championship teams. He twice won the MVP award in 1961 and 1963. He was named to the All-Star team eight times.

His retirement in 1964 was short-lived, as he was recruited to play again for Boston when they hosted the AAAD tournament in 1966.

Shelly's most memorable moments include the great comeback of the Boston team over Bridgeport in 1961. Boston trailed by 18 points late in the third period and came back to win Boston's first championship in its history. In 1963, he helped lead the Patriots to upset Holyoke, a powerful team, to bring the Patriots their first championship.

He also coached the Revere team to their first NEAAD championship.

Edmund F. Toppi

Inducted 1977 A playing honor

TEAM:
Providence

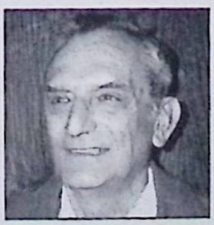
5 YEARS PLAYED:
1946-1950

CHAMPION TEAM:
Providence 1948

Toppi played basketball for the Rhode Island School for the Deaf prior to playing for the Providence Club for the Deaf. He played for Providence as well as on other teams. He played for Providence long before the NEAAD was founded. He was also involved in the EAAD and the AAAD. He was a loyal player and a good member of his club.

Toppi was a sharp shooter specializing in long arched shots, and he was named All-Rhode Island while at RISD. He was also named All-Eastern from 1939-42, and he was picked as team MVP twice during that time. He was named as an All-American in 1940.

He was a team player and an excellent leader. Edmund was relaxing and enjoying the Florida sun when he learned he was inducted into the NEAAD Hall of Fame.



Leo A. Burke

Inducted 1978 A coaching honor

TEAM:
Lawrence, Lynn, Holyoke, Boston, Sporal & Hartford

8 YEARS PLAYED:
1946-1971

CHAMPION TEAMS:
Lawrence 1947, Lynn 1948 & Hartford 1968 (Coaching)

A graduate of Clarke school for the Deaf, he played for Lawrence during the first NEAAD tournament at the American School for the Deaf. Leo was involved in NEAAD events as a player, coach, officer as well as being a delegate to both the EAAD and AAAD boards, representing the NEAAD. He was a faithful NEAAD supporter and fan. He was involved in leading the NEAAD out of the EAAD and into the eighth region of the AAAD.

Leo was the NEAAD President in 1978 when he moved to Louisiana. Thomas Desrosier took over, and ever since, Leo has lost track of the NEAAD. He remembers fondly of the great players that had played for him while he was a coach. To list his memorable events:

* First Annual NEAAD tournament championship won by Lawrence Silent Club. On the way to the finals, Lawrence upset a strong Hartford team and defeated a powerful Holyoke team for the championship. His teammate Earl West made several near-impossible long set shots in the fourth period to win the game.

* George Finn's amazing long overhead hook shot from halfcourt with seven seconds left to defeat a powerful Worcester team in the first round of the 1958 NEAAD tournament.

Leo also enjoyed moments from several great players during 1946-78. He last saw a NEAAD tournament in 1978 and retired from coaching in 1970.

Harold Jaeckel

Inducted 1978 A playing honor

TEAM:
Lawrence, Lynn & Worcester

6 YEARS PLAYED:
1946-1953

CHAMPION TEAMS:
Lawrence 1946, Lynn 1947 & Worcester 1949 & 1951

Inducted in the NEAAD Hall of Fame in 1978 for his playing ability, leading the Lawrence, Lynn and Worcester teams to championships between 1946-51. A big player, he was lucky enough to experience four championships in only six tournaments. He was with the teams that won the first two championships, Lawrence Silent Club and the Lynn Deaf Club. He played with George Trudeau ans others to two championships under Worcester.

Gilbert A. Desmarais

Inducted 1979 A playing honor

TEAM:
Providence

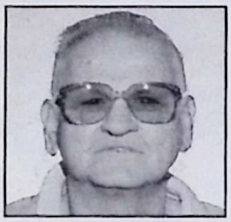
11 YEARS PLAYED:
1951-1963

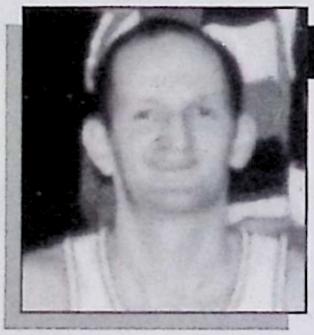
CHAMPION TEAMS:
7 consecutive years champions
Providence

Gilbert first learned to play basketball at the Rhode Island School for the Deaf, where he graduated in 1950. He joined with Edward Sedoma and other Rhode Islanders to lead Providence Deaf Club to seven straight NEAAD championships.

In the golden era of Providence basketball, from the years 1953-59, he and his teammates were involved in winning seven straight NEAAD championships due to his shooting ability, his defense and his rebounding.

Gilbert retired from basketball in 1961 and now has two children, three grandchildren, five step-grandchildren and five great-granddaughters. He is now retired and enjoys running around.





Dennis Phillipe

Inducted 1980 A playing honor

TEAM:
Providence, New Bedford (Whaling City), Worcester & Quincy

11 YEARS PLAYED:
1960-1973

CHAMPION TEAMS:
Worcester (1966-67) - Two times

Dennis attended the Boston School for the Deaf, and graduated in 1957 at the age of sixteen. He completed his education at Coyle High where he excelled in football, basketball, baseball and track. He graduated from Coyle in 1961 and began playing basketball for deaf clubs in 1959.

Dennis performed well in his first NEAAD tournament, scoring 26 points in the final game against Bridgeport. Providence came in second, losing to Bridgeport 88-73 ending its string of seven straight championship. Dennis played for Providence for the first three years of his career, prior to playing for New Bedford for a year. He returned to Providence for a year before joining the Worcester team for three years. After his stint with the Worcester team, he played for the Quincy team for three years. He ended his career with Providence.

His best years were with Worcester when they won two championships with his teammates Robert Shepard, George Trudeau and Robert Whipple. Dennis states that the Worcester team was very cooperative and unselfish. He also states that John Philip was a very positive influence on him when John was the coach of the Worcester team.

Dennis played on teams that finished second five times in the NEAAD tournaments. He was named the MVP along with two other players in the 1966 NEAAD tournament.

Dennis is married to Carole, his wife of 29 years and they have three children. Dennis was a true gentleman and star and had a career average of 13.4 points per game in the NEAAD tournaments.

Alfred W. Fox

Inducted 1981 A playing honor

TEAM:
Lynn, Holyoke, Boston, Worcester & Sporal

10 YEARS PLAYED:
1947-1956

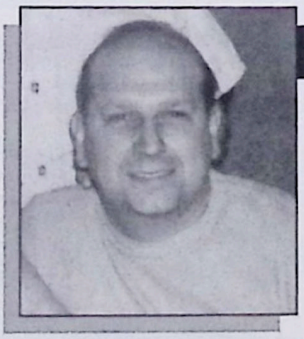
CHAMPION TEAMS:
Lynn 1947 & Worcester 1950

Alfred graduated from Clarke School in 1947. A great smiling, joke-telling player, Alfred Fox was an outstanding defensive guard in the NEAAD. Since 1947, he played for five Deaf clubs for a total of ten years as a first-string guard.

In 1947, he led his Lynn team to championship of the NEAAD and to the finals in the EAAD regional where they won second place.

Alfred's trait was to beam a big smile at any referee who called a foul on him, but once the referee's back was turned, Al would wave a few signs of dissatisfaction with the foul calls.

Alfred's favorite pastime activities were snowmobiling and camping in the summer.



Edmund Kaminski

Inducted 1981 A coaching honor

TEAM:
Worcester

5 YEARS COACHED:
1953, 1955-56, 1958 & 1960

Coaching Records:
12 wins and 7 loses in 5 years

Known as "Eddie", he never did play basketball with deaf clubs as he played on the hearing St. Mary's Athletic Association team in Worcester. After watching the Worcester Deaf Club play basketball, he yearned for his youth so he could play for them. Due to his age, his only chance to go to NEAAD tournaments was to coach teams. He led Worcester to a championship and a second place finish twice in the NEAAD tournaments.

Former Worcester players best remember Eddie for his warm personality. He was very humble and his players will always remember his great spirit on and off the courts. His time as a coach was regrettably short, but a memorable one.

John M. Speck

Inducted 1981 A coaching honor

TEAM:
Providence

9 YEARS:
1946-1965

CHAMPION TEAMS:
1948 Providence champ as playing
1953-54 champions
Providence as coaching

John was educated at the Rhode Island School for the Deaf from 1930 to 1939, and he played for the Providence Club for the Deaf from 1945-49. After he ended his playing career, he became the coach of the Providence Club and led them to two straight NEAAD championships between 1953-54. He is currently married to Mary Anna Brown. He was inducted to the NEAAD Hall of Fame for his coaching abilities while at Providence.

Joseph D. Marino

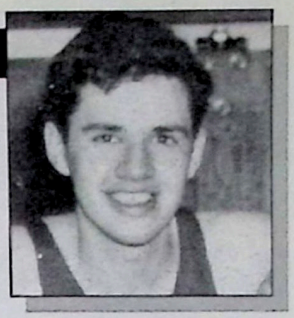
Inducted 1981 A coaching & Leader honor

TEAM:
Hartford

6 YEARS OF LEADERSHIP:
1946 -1981

Known affectionally by many to be the "Father of the Hartford Club for the Deaf", Joe was selected to the NEAAD Hall of Fame for his leadership and coaching. He is considered as one of the greatest supporters of the NEAAD. His contribution to the NEAAD included the offices of Treasurer, 1948-51, President, 1972-74, and Delegate at Large, 1974-81. A thoughtful and dedicated person who often considered others first before thinking of himself. He demonstrated excellent leadership skills for his Hartford Club resulting in many achievements.

Donald S. Tucker



Inducted 1982 A playing honor

TEAM:
Worcester & Springfield (Mohawk Oak)

9 YEARS PLAYED:
1949-1963

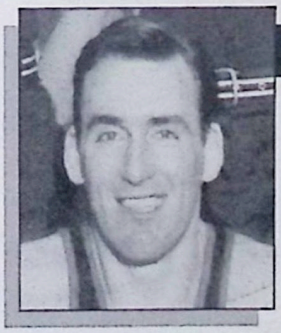
CHAMPION TEAMS:
Worcester 1949-52 - 4 times

Donald graduated from the Clarke School for the Deaf in 1948 and joined his former classmates at the Worcester Club with the likes of John Philip, Ernest Ovitt, Francis Ross and others to lead the Worcester basketball team to three straight championships.

He was a very effective player with aggressive rebounding prior to his career-ending knee injury. He played on three championship teams, and one of his teams was a runner-up in the EAAD tournament.

His most memorable moment was when his Worcester team played against the Golden Tornadoes of New York at the EAAD Regional Tournament in 1952. The Worcester team played so well, that they help the Tornadoes' superstar, Carl Lorello to a few points due to the team's great rebounding and defense. The team ran out of gas and lost late in the game against the Golden Tornadoes.

After Donald retired in 1953, he attempted two comebacks in 1956 and 1963. For the coaches that had Donald, he was the perfect basketball player who was not selfish, and a real gentleman on and off the court.



John F. Winters

Inducted 1983 A playing honor

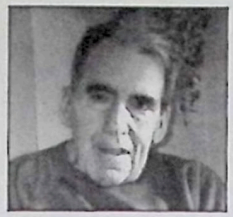
TEAM:
Worcester

13 YEARS PLAYED:
1946-63

CHAMPION TEAMS:
Lawrence 1946, Lynn1947,
Worcester 1949-52 - 4 times &
Providence 1959

A graduate from the Boston School for the Deaf, John was a member of the first NEAAD championship team, the Lawrence Silent Club in 1946, a skilled rebounder and a player of great defensive abilities, he joined the Lynn team in 1947 and led them to the NEAAD title. John later joined the Worcester team and helped lead them to four championships in four years. He won his last championship while playing for the Providence Club.

He played in the NEAAD tournaments for 17 years, and averaged 6 points a game. He has played on seven championship teams and was on three runner-up teams. he fondly looks back at the times that the Lawrence Silent Club played against powerful hearing teams in preparation for their confrontation with the Holyoke Deaf Club. This led the Lawrence team to victory.



Edmond E. Michaud

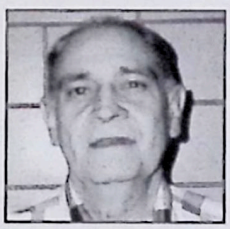
Inducted 1984 A playing honor

TEAM:
Providence

12 YEARS PLAYED:
1949-1967

CHAMPION TEAMS:
7 consecutive years champions with Providence

He graduated from the Rhode Island School for the Deaf in 1947. Edmund then joined the Providence team in 1949 along with the likes of Corrigan, Lomastro, Desmarais, Sedoma and Smith for a dynasty that lasted seven years in the NEAAD tournaments. Edmund played basketball for 12 years for Providence and retired in 1968.



Kimball D. Nash

Inducted 1982 A Leader honor

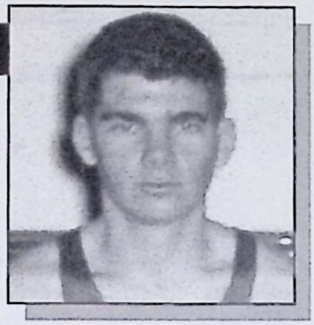
20 YEARS OF LEADERSHIP:
1951-1972

Kimball first became involved with the NEAAD when the Providence Deaf Club selected him to be a representative for the NEAAD meetings in 1951. He was involved as a representative for seven years, giving him an extensive knowledge of the NEAAD. Kimball remained involved as this fascinated him.

Kimball was also a manager and scorekeeper during this time when his beloved Providence club won seven straight NEAAD championships. Holding the position of scorekeeper while the Providence club won seven championships in a row made him very nervous. He dreamed of playing for the Providence team but his health prevented him from doing so.

Kimball was the President of the NEAAD from 1968 to 1972. Throughout those years he met many representatives from various deaf clubs in New England and elsewhere. Being the president of the NEAAD gave Kimball plenty of rich experience. He thanks the representatives for electing him as president and also to Thomas Desrosier for making the 25th Anniversary NEAAD Banquet a wonderful success. He retired from the NEAAD in 1974.

Bernard Gibbons



Inducted 1985 A playing honor

TEAM:
Patriots, Worcester, Boston and Quincy

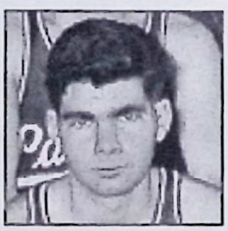
13 YEARS PLAYED:
1959-1973

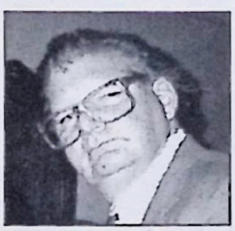
CHAMPION TEAMS:
Boston 1961, Patriots 1963-64
Worcester 1967 & Quincy 1972

A graduate of the Horace Mann School for the Deaf, Bernie joined the Boston Deaf Club in 1959. He played basketball for thirteen years, helping his teams win five championships. A valuable player who excelled in his shooting and rebounding skills, he had to retire in 1972 due to a knee injury.

Elected as an All-Star three times, he played with several Hall of Famers such as Kass, S.Freedman and K.Monahan. His most memorable game was when he scored 17 points as a rookie leading his Boston club to upset Worcester in the NEAAD tournament.

He also cherishes his Patriots years (1963-64) when he led the team to two straight championships. He also vividly remembers the 1972 Quincy team which defeated Providence for its first ever NEAAD Championship.





John L. Gendron

Inducted 1985 A playing honor

TEAM:
Holyoke

17 YEARS PLAYED:
1946-62

RECORDS:
Runner-Up Twice

John attended the Clarke School for the Deaf and then graduated from the American School for the Deaf. Proving his loyalty, he played for Holyoke for his entire playing career. A good rebounder and defenseman, he unselfishly led Holyoke to two second place finishes. He was once elected as an All-Star and coached his Holyoke team whenever they needed a coach. His good spirit motivated the Holyoke team, and John today is still a loyal member of the Holyoke Deaf Club.

Kenneth J. Doucette

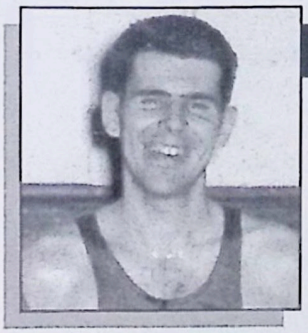
Inducted 1986 A playing honor

TEAM:
Boston, Worcester and Providence

10 YEARS PLAYED:
1953-1963

CHAMPION TEAMS:
Providence 1958-59 - 2 times and Boston 1961

A Boston School for the Deaf graduate, Kenneth joined the Boston Deaf club in 1953 during his senior year at BSD. As a rookie, he earned the NEAAD MVP at the tournament in Fairfield, CT. He vividly remembers his Providence team had to play with only four players during the 1959 tournament and beat Boston enroute to the Championship. His fine defensive abilities helped his teams win several championships.



Robert Kass

Inducted 1986 A playing honor

TEAM:
Sporals, Worcester, Boston and Patroits

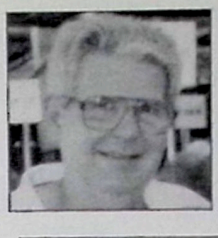
12 YEARS PLAYED:
1952-63

CHAMPION TEAMS:
Boston 1961 and Patroits 1963

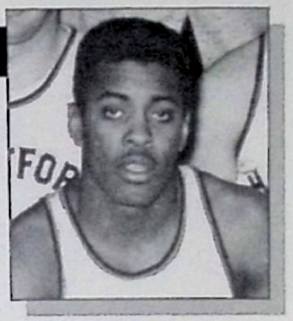
Robert began his playing year at age 17, and played for four deaf clubs during his 12 year playing career. His teams made the finals six times, and won two championships. During his career, he won All-Star and Sportsmanship awards.

In 1961, as a member of the Boston team, a furious rally during the second half of the Boston-Bridgeport game in the semifinals led to a remarkable upset of the heavily favored Bridgeport team. His Boston club eventually won the 1961 championship over Providence. In 1963, playing with the likes of S.Freedman and Gibbons, he helped lead the Patroits team to win the championship by only one point over the Holyoke club.

His love for basketball is shown when he came out of his retirement to play for the Boston deaf Club during the 1966 AAAD tournament in Boston. He has been married to his wife, Betty for 27 years. They have four children and currently reside in Beverly, Massachusetts.



Robert R. Shepard



Inducted 1987 A playing honor

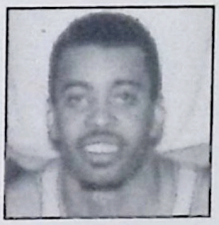
TEAM:
Hartford, Holyoke and Worcester

13 YEARS PLAYED:
1962-1979

CHAMPION TEAMS:
Hartford 1962, 1971 & Worcester 1966-67 - 2 times

Robert graduated from the American School for the Deaf in 1961, and he was an outstanding basketball player during his school years. Because of this, many deaf clubs tried to recruit him, Robert decided to play for the Hartford club for his rookie year. He played for the Holyoke team for a year, but played for Worcester for a total of 13 years.

Robert's greatest game was against the powerful Union League Club team of New York during the 1964 AAAD tournament. He scored 46 Points against the eventual 1964 National Champion Union League team. He was selected as an All-Star every year of his playing career in the NEAAD. He was elected as the MVP three times in 1964, '66 and '67. An excellent rebounder, Robert often made his points inside the paint.



Kenneth J. Monahan

Inducted 1987 A playing honor

TEAM:
Worcester, Sporal and Boston

15 YEARS PLAYED:
1950-65

RECORDS:
Champions: Worcester 1950-52 (3 Times) and Boston 1961

A graduate of the Clarke School for the Deaf, Ken played with the Worcester ballclub with George Trudeau, John Philip, Donald Tucker and others who were his classmates at Clarke, and winning three straight championships with them until Providence stopped Worcester in 1953.

His most memorable game was when Worcester decided to release him and he joined the Boston club in 1957. With George Finn, Jr.'s memorable hook shot in 1958 with less than 10 seconds remaining, Ken had his revenge in upsetting his former team 39-38. Ken played his last five years with Boston, winning one championship and being runner-up thrice. He retired in 1963 after winning his All-Star honors.

TEAM:
Holyoke
Playing In 1946-49
Coaching In 1947 & 1950-51

7 YEARS OF LEADERSHIP:
1946-65

One of the founders of the NEAAD and he was an officer in the early stages of the organization. He was the NEAAD treasurer from 1946-48 (Unofficially), secretary 1948-51. He took up both offices of secretary and treasurer from 1951-52 and President 1952-53. He was also involved with NEAAD softball, being the chairperson of the 1st Annual NEAAD Softball tournament in 1952. He was well known in Holyoke and often had his deaf teams compete in city tournaments around Holyoke. He was excellent in obtaining media attention for his teams and won compassion from people including the mayor of Holyoke. He was the chair of the 1950 NEAAD tournament and it attracted many fans. He was well known for his skill in organizing successful events, an excellent coach, and his loyalty to the Holyoke Club was unbreakable up to his recent death.

Richard T. Osgood

Inducted 1988 A playing honor

TEAM:
Hartford (1964-77 & 1979)
and Waterbury (1978)

14 YEARS PLAYED:
1964-1979

CHAMPION TEAMS:
Hartford 1965, 1968-69, 1971 & 1973-74

Ricky attended the Governor Baxter School for the Deaf in Portland, Maine up to the 8th grade, then he transferred to the American School for the Deaf where he finished his education. He was a star player for Hartford for many years. He was nicknamed "Mr. Hartford Club" due to his loyalty and desire to win for Hartford. During the years he played for Hartford, six NEAAD titles came to Hartford. In 1974, he was named coach of the tournament when as player/coach, he led Hartford to the NEAAD crown without star players Roosevelt Cunningham, Albert Couthen, Robert Shepard and John Tautkus.

He played one year for Waterbury in 1978, and ended his playing career in New England in 1979 with Hartford when he moved to Miami, Florida. He played two more years with the Miami club before retiring. His leadership continued when he was the General Chairperson of the AAAD tournament in Miami in 1989. He fondly remembers the 82-80 loss to Leon Grant and the Carolina team which eventually won the AAAD title in 1972.

TEAM:
Bridgeport

8 YEARS PLAYED:
1946-1954

RECORDS:
Not Available

Blessed with his defensive abilities, he was vital in keeping opponents' scores low while he played for Bridgeport. He never won a NEAAD crown due to the dynasties of Worcester and Providence who had manipulated the NEAAD's for 11 years. He played for a total of eight years for Bridgeport. He played his last tournament in 1954, and retired. He missed the 1952 NEAAD tournament due to the fact that Bridgeport hosted the EAAD tournament. He was one of the first players in the NEAAD tournaments in 1946.

Francis E. Corrigan

Inducted 1989 A playing honor

TEAM:
Providence

12 YEARS PLAYED:
1953-65

CHAMPION TEAMS:
Providence 7 consecutive championships

Francis graduated from Rhode Island School for the Deaf, he joined his classmates and teammates from school on the Providence squad. He played with Hall of Famers such as Edward Sedoma and Robert Smith, on a powerful Providence team that had won an unprecedented seven straight titles. This will probably never be broken in NEAAD history. Francis cannot forget one game he played with PCD against Worcester in 1957. Both teams had won four NEAAD titles and both were hoping to win their fifth title. Providence prevailed, winning their fifth straight, breaking a NEAAD record. Francis retired in 1965 after 12 years of play.

CHAMPION TEAMS:
Bridgeport 1960 & Worcester 1967

Warren graduated from Mystic Oral School for the Deaf and joined NEAAD play in 1955. He played for six teams during 17 years career. He will always cherish Bridgeport's victory over the Providence dynasty, denying Providence of a possible 8th straight title. Warren will remember playing with MVP Quentin Amati, Sr. the former star of the Golden Tornadoes in New York on the 1960 champion Bridgeport team. Warren played mainly as a point guard and a small forward.

Thomas Desrosier

Inducted 1990 A Leader honor

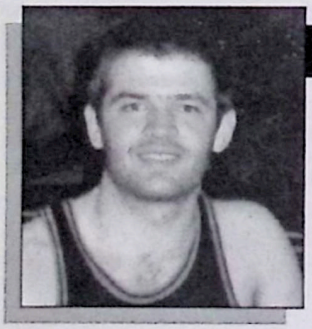
TEAM:
Playing Hartford (1955, 1957, 1959-60 & 1962) and Holyoke 1971

12 YEARS OF LEADERSHIP:
1964-1979

Thomas received his education from the Clarke School and American School for the Deaf before going to Gallaudet College. Upon finishing his education, he promptly obtained an instructor position at ASD and remained there until his retirement. He played sports for Hartford and Holyoke in various years in the late 50's and the 60's ending in 1971.

He became involved with NEAAD politics then, and worked hard to become the president of the NEAAD. He served a total of eleven years as NEAAD president. He also served as vice president and delegate at large for the NEAAD. He was one of the leaders who pushed to separate NEAAD from EAAD to make NEAAD the eighth district of AAAD. Along with leaders such as Roger Claussen, Leo Burke, and Al Berke, he went to the AAAD convention in 1982 and they won.

He chaired the 25th anniversary NEAAD tournament in Boston and attended the 50th anniversary NEAAD in Framingham as a loyal fan and Hall of Famer. Even though he has reduced his official duties for NEAAD, his heart is always with the NEAAD.



Edward T. Dawson

Inducted 1991 A playing honor

TEAM:
Bridgeport and Hartford

7 YEARS PLAYED:
1960-71

CHAMPION TEAMS:
Bridgeport 1960 & Hartford 1968

Edward was a star in football and basketball at his alma mater, American School for the Deaf. He continued his outstanding play for Bridgeport and Hartford, averaging 21.8 points per game in NEAAD tournament play. He was the high scorer three times, and broke Edward Sedoma's high score with 48 points in 1968. He held that record until David Rhodes broke it with his 55 points in 1994. Edward won the MVP in 1965 when he averaged 27.3 points per game in leading Bridgeport to the final in 1965. Edward was a second All-Star during 1971 EAAD tournament. He won the coach of the tournament for the EAAD's for Bridgeport.

John P. Tautkus

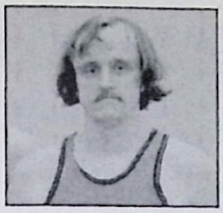
Daniel was a deadly shot for all over the court, and usually was unstoppable. He graduated from the American School for the Deaf and played on the Gallaudet College basketball team. He graduated from Gallaudet in 1975 and joined the Waterbury team in 1976. He injured his knee one week prior to the NEAAD tournament in 1976, and could not participate in Waterbury's drive to the NEAAD title. His absence was dearly missed by the Waterbury squad who had lost by one point to Union League in the EAAD's Dan Pordum the coach of Union League was thankful that Daniel did not show for the EAAD tournament as he regarded Daniel as one of the best shooters he had witnessed in his many years of coaching.

In the NEAAD's, Daniel often had high point totals for example he scored 31 and 39 points in two games in 1979. He also scored 35 points in 1978, coming away as the top scorer. He was not the same player after his tragic knee injury in 1976. Yet he had a deadly eye as he nearly led Worcester over Providence for the 1979 championship. Providence crawled out alive with the championship thanks to the fact that many Worcester players had fouled out. His knee injury forced his early retirement after only six years of play. His brother Paul Rinas also was elected to the Hall of Fame.



Michael G. Sabia

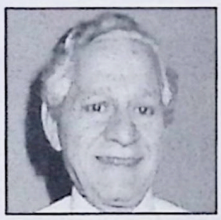
Inducted 1992 A playing honor

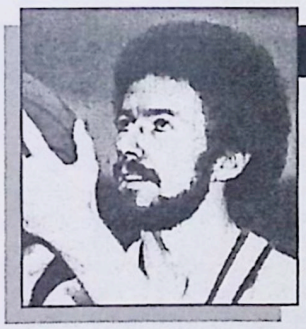
TEAM:
Bridgeport and Fairfield

8 YEARS PLAYED:
1946-1955

RECORDS:
Runner-Up in 1951
AVG. 11.3 points per game

Michael graduated from the Mystic Oral School and started playing in the NEAAD's in 1946, joining the elite first group of players. His most memorable time was when he led Fairfield to the finals in the 1951 NEAAD tournament at the American School for the Deaf. He had to exit during the third quarter due to leg cramps. Fairfield could not survive without Sabia and was blown away by a very powerful Worcester ballclub. Michael won All-Star honors in 1951, 1956 and also in 1948 for Bridgeport. He was the coach of the Bridgeport club from 1977 to 1978.





Dennis Berrigan

Inducted 1993 A playing honor

TEAM:
Waterbury and Hartford

5 YEARS PLAYED:
1976-83

CHAMPION TEAMS:
Waterbury 1976-77 (2)
and Hartford 1982-83 (2)

Dennis graduated from St. Mary's School for the Deaf in Buffalo, N.Y. He led St. Mary's to two ESDAA (Eastern States Deaf Athletic Association) titles, and played four years of varsity basketball at Gallaudet. His best tournament was on the 1976 Waterbury squad who went 22-0 before the EAAD tournament and the 1982 Hartford trio who had won the EAAD title, being the first NEAAD team to win the EAAD championship. His Waterbury club was defeated in the EAAD's after upsetting the Philadelphia Silent Athletic Club by the Union League by one point. He helped lead Waterbury to second place finishes two straight years, and was elected as an All-Star in the EAAD's in 1977.

Hartford with Dennis made history by winning their first and only EAAD championship for NEAAD prior to becoming the eighth region of the AAAD in 1983. Hartford defeated Baltimore Silent Club 60-57 to capture those honors. Dennis was best known for his sharp-shooting skills and unselfish play. Dennis left the NEAAD's to Washington, D.C. after winning the championship with Hartford in 1983.

Eddie Hill, Sr.

Inducted 1993 A playing honor

TEAM:
Hartford, Holyoke and Bridgeport

18 YEARS PLAYED:
1957-1978

CHAMPION TEAMS:
Hartford 1962 & 1965

Hill, Sr., a graduate of the Western Pennsylvania School for the Deaf, upon finding a job in Hartford, joined the Hartford team. He was a clutch player who sparked Hartford to two championships in 1962 and 1965. He was elected as a MVP in 1962 and as an All-Star in 1965. Some called him a "Harlem Globetrotter" for his dazzling ball play on the court.

Calvin L. Tandy

Inducted 1993 A coaching honor

TEAM:
Playing Lawrence (1944-46)
Coaching Worcester (2 years)

3 YEARS PLAYED:
1946-50

CHAMPION TEAMS
Lawrence 1946 and
Worcester 1949-50

Calvin, a graduate of the Clarke School for the Deaf, was the captain on two Clarke teams in 1939 and 1940. He led Clarke to their first championship in the Franklin League, competing with other hearing schools in 1940. Henry Whilhelm, a long time coach and physical education teacher at Clarke, stated that Calvin was a clever all around player.

He played with Ernest Ovitt his classmate and other Clarke players as well in leading Lawrence to the NEAAD title over Holyoke who had six former Clarke players. Lawrence had a total of five former Clarke players. Both teams engrossed with Clarke athletic pride by Henry Whilhelm battled to a 40-34 game in overtime. Calvin's Lawrence team prevailed. He also tried the coaching job and led Worcester to two straight titles, the last being in 1950, 42-31 over Holyoke.

Joseph Ricciuti

Inducted 1993 A Leader honor

6 YEARS OF LEADERSHIP:
1959-1986

Joe was admitted to the NEAAD Hall of Fame on March 6, 1993 for his leadership. He extended his fine leadership skills and fundraising abilities to many places. He was the founder and first president of the Worcester Deaf Club.

Joe was the General Chairman of the 1952 NEAAD tournament in Worcester. He was also the General Chairman of the NEAAD tournament hosted by Boston Deaf Club. Joe was elected as the Vice President of the NEAAD under President Thomas Desrosier.

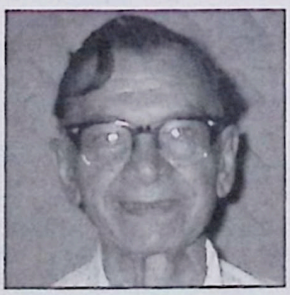
Joe once again took the role of founder when he helped found the Revere Deaf Club.

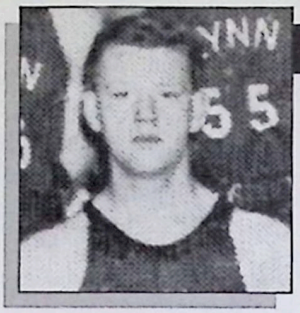
In 1988 Joe was elected to be the General Chairman of Boston Deaf Club's hosting of the AAAD basketball tournament at Northeastern University. He put a lot of effort in an attempt to raise the needed funds and helped meet everyone's needs, spending many hours working to make the tournament successful. He was praised for his hard work and the AAAD people have recognized his leadership qualities.

Joe Ricciuti was a honorary member with 3 clubs! (Revere, Worcester and Boston)

Joe's MOTTO: "I will continue with deep devotion forever to be in the hearts of all members of not only BDC but also Worcester Deaf Club and Revere Club of the Deaf".

His dream to see the 50th annual NEAAD's basketball tournament in Framingham, ended when he died recently, but his heart will be always with us!.





Charles Blundell, Sr.

Inducted 1994 A playing honor

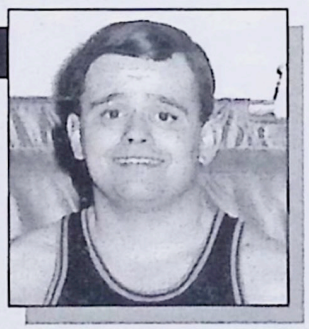
TEAM:
Lawrence and Lynn

4 YEARS PLAYED:
1946-49

CHAMPION TEAMS:
Lawrence 1946 and Lynn 1947

Charles graduated from the Clarke School for the Deaf in 1942. Well Known as a great baseball player in the position of catcher, he was good in basketball for Clarke. He joined up forces with his former Clarke teammates at Lawrence and helped them to win the first NEAAD crown in 1946. He also joined the Lynn team which won the NEAAD championship in 1947. His rebounding helped nail key points for Lawrence and Lynn over their opponents.

Paul G. Rinas



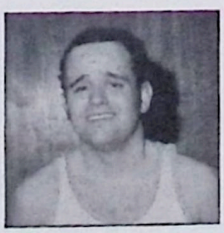
Inducted 1994 A playing honor

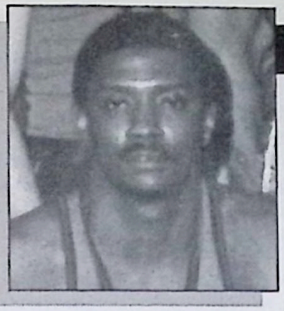
TEAM:
Hartford, Worcester, Holyoke, Bridgeport, Portland and Waterbury

13 YEARS PLAYED:
1965-1985

CHAMPION TEAMS:
Hartford 1965 & 1971 and Bridgeport 1970

A 1963 graduate from the American School for the Deaf. He began his playing career in the NEAAD's in 1964. Paul was a role player, coming off the bench and sparking the offense when needed. His most memorable moment was when he came off the bench to help Portland beat Bridgeport with his 8 fourth quarter points. This gave Portland the third place honors in the 1972 tournament. He scored 16 clutch points to help the 1965 Hartford club defeat Worcester 62-58. Paul was the key player in this game, helping pave the way to Hartford's championship. He received All-Star status twice, and he coached the Holyoke team which came second in the 1984 NEAAD tournament. Paul was well regarded as a team player.





Roosevelt Cunningham

Inducted 1994 A playing honor

TEAM:
Hartford

3 YEARS PLAYED:
1969-73

CHAMPION TEAMS:
Hartford 1969,1971 and 1973

Roosevelt attended the Alabama School for the Deaf before he transferred to the American School for the Deaf in Hartford. He was a basketball and football standout. He played in the NEAAD's for four years, averaging 15.1 points per game. He won three MVP awards along with the three championships that Hartford won in 1969, 1971 and 1973. In 1972, Cunningham battled the heralded Leon Grant and the Carolina team who eventually won the AAAD championship. They declared Cunningham to be the toughest defender they had ever played against.

Kevin R. Ritchie

Inducted 1995 A playing honor

TEAM:
Bridgeport, Waterbury, Holyoke and Hartford

12 YEARS PLAYED:
1974-1988

CHAMPION TEAMS:
Waterbury 1976-77 & 1981, Holyoke 1980 and Hartford 1982-83

Kevin due to his height and size, gained a lot of attention from NEAAD ballclubs. He is an American School alumni and he is acclaimed for his rugged rebounding and dangerous inside shooting. His first title was with Waterbury in 1976, bringing Waterbury its first ever NEAAD crown. The 1976 Waterbury team came only one point away from winning the EAAD title, losing to Union League by one point in the championship game after upsetting heavily favored Phila-SAC.

The following year, Waterbury again won the NEAAD crown. But Kevin and Waterbury's dreams of an EAAD crown was shattered when they lost to Union League once again in the finals in Revere, Massachusetts. Kevin won All-Star honors three times and other great stars prevented him from claiming the MVP award.

Kelvin Brand

Inducted 1995 A playing honor

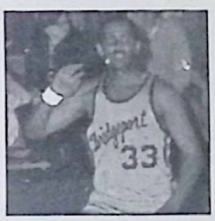
TEAM:
Bridgeport, Hartford and Holyoke

10 YEARS PLAYED:
1959-73

CHAMPION TEAMS:
Bridgeport 1960 and 1970
Hartford 1965

Kelvin played for 10 years in the NEAAD's, playing for Bridgeport, Holyoke and Hartford. He once scored 43 points for Bridgeport against Providence in a consolation game (Overtime) in 1966. He was often named an All-Star but failed to achieve MVP honors. He played for championship teams with Bridgeport and Hartford. He contributed more to the Bridgeport team than the Hartford team.

He attended school in New York.



Gerald A. Lentini

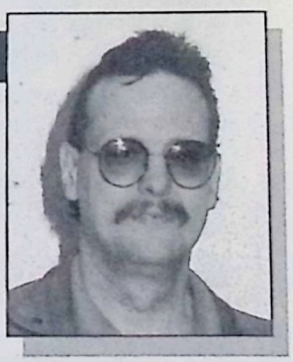
Inducted 1995 A coaching honor

TEAM:
Waterbury, Holyoke and Hartford

7 YEARS COACHED:
1976-1983

CHAMPION TEAMS:
Waterbury 1976-77 & 1981, Holyoke 1980 & Hartford 1982-83

RECORDS:
18 wins and 1 lose



Gerald graduated from the Indiana School for the Deaf. In his coaching career in the NEAAD's he led his teams to six championships in the seven years he coached. His overall record was 79 wins and 14 loses, a remarkable record for any coach.

He led Waterbury, Holyoke and Hartford to championships with 18 victories and only one loss in the NEAAD's from 1976 to 1983. His most memorable campaign was with the 1976 Waterbury team who won the NEAAD's and came one point away from upsetting Union League of New York in the EAAD tournament for the EAAD championship. He coached the 1977 Waterbury team to the EAAD's once again, losing to Union League. When he coached his 1982 Hartford club, to an EAAD championship, this was the first a NEAAD team won the championship, just before NEAAD became the eighth region of AAAD.

Nancy V. Becker

Inducted 1995 A Leader honor

10 YEARS OF LEADERSHIP:
1983-92

Nancy was a former student of the Lexington School for the Deaf in New York before transferred to the American School for the Deaf and graduated at 1966. She attended Gallaudet College. She served as NEAAD's secretary/treasurer for nine years before she became the Womens' commissioner for the NEAAD's women's teams. She enjoyed her position as secretary/treasurer as she considered it enjoyable. She enjoyed the opportunity to know all players in the NEAAD's.

Once, Nancy received an application from someone who signed a player stated to be 100 years old. She called the manager of the team, telling that she would not allow this team to participate in the tournament unless she received the proper age on the application. The manager then drove to Nancy's home and corrected the application! Nancy gave her a smile, and the manager knew she meant business but also enjoyed doing her job. Nancy was strict with procedures and rules on her job.

As Womens' Commissioner, she got closer to the female players and understood the rules in order to support all the women athletes.

Donald Cole Zulauf

Inducted 1995 A Leader honor

7 YEARS OF LEADERSHIP:
1969-1972
Hartford

Cole as he was called, attended the Lexington School for the Deaf and Public School 47 in New York City, and attended Clark University near Worcester, Massachusetts. He became first associated with the NEAAD's when he played basketball and softball for the Hartford Club in 1967. He assisted the NEAAD officers in the early 1970's, chaired the 25th anniversary EAAD basketball and softball tournaments in 1970 and 1971 respectively. He also chaired the 28th annual AAAD basketball tournament in 1972. He served as the vice president and then the president of the EAAd in 1971-77. He was the chair of the organizing committee for the winter World Games for the Deaf in Lake Placid, New York in 1975. He was the director of the USA team in the Pan American games for the Deaf in 1975 and for the Summer World Games for the Deaf in 1977. He also served as publicity director for the Hall of Fame for the AAAD from 1980 to 1981. He is currently serving as Games Director for the Mini Deaf Sports Festival and is the president of the Kentucky Association for the Deaf.

"I, personally, want to thank the Hartford Club and the New England Association for the Deaf for allowing me the opportunity to work with them and with others which led me to become involved with nationwide organizations."

1st Annual
NEAAD Womens' Basketball Tournament

Providence mulitates CAADA for first NEAAD Women's crown

Edited by John Moore

Hosted by Boston Club of the Deaf, Inc., Alma Bournazian the General Chairperson for the tournament, welcomed the first two female teams to compete. It occurred on Saturday, March 2nd in the year of 1991.

In the 1988 AAAD basketball tournament, Jo-Ann O'Neill with others, sponsored by Mary Essex participated on an unofficial women's tournament. AAAD did not recognize this.

Nevertheless in 1991, Jo-Ann O'Neill, Mary Essex along with other women staged an official women's tournament in the NEAAD's the first year had only two teams, Providence and CAADA. AAAD saw this example and followed suit by hosting a 1992 women's tournament.

Still today, women's teams have a long way to go to be at part with the recognizance that men's teams get in the NEAAD, as well as in the AAAD's

There was only room for one game, and two teams, Providence and CAADA enlisted their female stars. Providence made history for have the first ever NEAAD Women's championship by blowing away CAADA 50-20. Providence led by 21 points at the half, and never looked back. Led by Jo-Ann O' Neill the MVP of the tournament with her 12 points and and Mary Essex with 13 points, Providence was too overpowering for CAADA to handle. Providence made in 22 field goals and sunk in 6 free throws. CAADA had only 9 field goals and one free throws, but Terri Ditimi of CAADA had the honor of making the first three pointer in the history of the women's tournament. Ditimi was also the leading scorer on the CAADA team with her 12 points which accounted for 60 percent of CAADA's total offense.

The five all-stars selected were Jo-Ann O'Neill, Mary Essex and Nancy O'Neill of Providence and Terri Ditimi and Juanita Pettway of CAADA.

5th Annual
NEAAD Womens' Basketball Tournament

Worcester (White) defeats Worcester (Red) in the battle of Worcester for NEAAD Title

Edited by John Moore

NEAAD hosted the 5th annual tournament along with the 50th anniversary men's tournament at the Joseph Keefe Technical High School gym in Framingham, Massachusetts. Chaired by Louis Rivas, this was far the most successful womens' tournament with four teams and a team from Vermont. Many Providence players created the Worcester-based "White" team which eventually won the championship over Worcester (Red) historically Providence's rival. So, therefore, Providence and Worcester have split their championships at 2.5 a piece.

Worcester (Red) continued CAADA's frustration to five straight games with a 56-26 victory. Lana Cook broke a NEAAd overall record with her 25 point contribution for Worcester (R). Lana Cook made 9 out of 21 field goal attempts and sunk in 7 free throws (a NEAAD record) in leading Worcester (R) over CAADA who had scored only one more point than Cook herself. Worcester (White) stacked with the Ferreira sisters, Rachael, Suzanne and Elizabeth (who had the last name, Shields) and the O'Neill sisters, Nancy and Jo-Ann. Debbie Misiewicz was also on the team and the team had three past MVP's not including Rachael Ferreira's current MVP award. Worcester (W) welcomed Greater Burlington (Vermont) with a loss, 49-28. Rachael Ferreira sunk in 18 points for Worcester (W) while Mary Fooks of Greater Burlington had 13 points, 3 three pointers, a NEAAD record in a single NEAAD tournament game.

In the consolation rounds, Greater Burlington took sole possession of third place over CAADA which extended their losing streak to 6 and 0-6 in NEAAD history with a 45-35 victory. Diane Brown had 21 points for Greater Burlington and Wynee Burks, CAADA's star had 19 points. In the championship game, Worcester (W) eliminated Worcester (R) from the tournament with a 59-42 victory. Rachael Ferreira and Jo-Ann O'Neill had 16 and 17 points respectively in leading Worcester (W) to victory Suzanne Ferreira and 11 assists in sparking the O'Neill sisters and her sister, Rachael to double figures. Her 11 assists is a NEAAD tournament record. Rachael Ferreira in capturing MVP honors became the third person in her family to win NEAAD MVP honors. The first being George Ferreira who won in 1975 and the second being Joaquim (Jack) Ferreira in 1979. Both are Rachael's brothers, and two more sisters have yet to win this honor, Suzanne and Elizabeth (Shields) Worcester (White) had a real family affair.
